This prospectus (Prospectus) has been approved by the Central Bank of Ireland, as competent authority under Directive 2003/71/EC (the Prospectus Directive) as amended (including by Directive 2010/73/EU). The Central Bank of Ireland only approves this Prospectus as meeting the requirements imposed under Irish and European Union (EU) law pursuant to the Prospectus Directive. Application has been made to the Irish Stock Exchange plc trading as Euronext Dublin (Euronext Dublin) for the Capital Securities to be admitted to its official list and trading on its regulated market. Such approval relates only to the Capital Securities that are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II) and/or that are to be offered to the public in any member state of the European Economic Area (the EEA). References in this Prospectus to the Capital Securities being listed (and all related references) shall mean that the Capital Securities have been admitted to the official list of Euronext Dublin and have been admitted to trading on its regulated market, which is a regulated market for the purposes of MiFID II.

MiFID II product governance / Professional investors and eligible counterparties only target market – Solely for the purposes of each manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Capital Securities has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Capital Securities is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Capital Securities to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Capital Securities (a distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturers' target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Capital Securities (by either adopting or refining the manufacturers' target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

PRIIPs Regulation / PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – The Capital Securities are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC (as amended, the Insurance Mediation Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Capital Securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Capital Securities or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

Singapore Securities and Futures Act Product Classification – Solely for the purposes of its obligations pursuant to sections 309B(1)(a) and 309B(1)(c) of the Securities and Futures Act (Chapter 289 of Singapore) (the SFA), the Issuer has determined, and hereby notifies all relevant persons (as defined in Regulation 3(b) of the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 (the SF (CMP) Regulations)) that the Capital Securities are "prescribed capital markets products" (as defined in the SF (CMP) Regulations) and Excluded Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

The Issuer has been rated BB by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (S&P) and BBB- by Fitch Ratings Ltd (Fitch). The Capital Securities are expected to be rated BB by S&P and BB by Fitch. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organisation. Each of S&P and Fitch is established in the EU and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the CRA Regulation). As such, each of S&P and Fitch is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation.

Amounts payable on the Capital Securities in respect of each Reset Period will be calculated by reference to the mid-swap rate for euro swap transactions with a maturity of five years which appears on the Reuters screen ICESWAP2 (ICE Swap Rate). As at the date of this Prospectus, the administrator of ICE Swap Rate (ICE Benchmark Administration Limited (IBA)) is included in ESMA's register of administrators under Article 36 of the Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 (the Benchmarks Regulation).

The Capital Securities will initially be represented by a temporary global capital security (the Temporary Global Capital Security), without interest coupons, which will be deposited on or about 26 April 2019 (the Closing Date) with a common depositary for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg). Interests in the Temporary Global Capital Security will be exchangeable for interests in a permanent global capital security (the Permanent Global Capital Security).

RISK FACTORS

Before making an investment decision, prospective investors should carefully review the specific risk factors described below, in addition to the other information contained in this Prospectus. The Issuer believes that the following factors may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Capital Securities. Most of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur and the Issuer is not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring. The Issuer's business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially affected by each of these risks presented. Also other risks and uncertainties not described herein could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Capital Securities. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Issuer, or that the Issuer currently believes are immaterial, could impair the ability of the Issuer to fulfil its obligations under the Capital Securities. Certain other matters regarding the operations of the Issuer that should be considered before making an investment in the Capital Securities are set out, in the section "Information about the Issuer", amongst other places. The order of presentation of the risk factors in this Prospectus is not intended to be an indication of the probability of their occurrence or of their potential effect on the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Capital Securities.

The capitalised words and expressions in this section shall have the meanings defined in "Terms and Conditions of the Capital Securities".

Factors that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Capital Securities

Risks relating to the Issuer and the Group

Macroeconomic factors

The real estate business is affected by macroeconomic factors such as the general economic trend, regional economic development, employment rate, production rate of new premises, changes of infrastructure, inflation and interest rates. The development of the economy is a material factor for supply and demand in the real estate market and accordingly affects vacancy and rental rates for the properties.

Global financial markets continue to experience disruptions, including increased volatility and diminished liquidity and credit availability. Concerns about credit risk (including that of sovereigns) have increased, especially with the presence of significant sovereign debts and/or fiscal deficits in a number of European countries and the US. This has raised concerns regarding the financial condition of financial institutions and other corporates located in these countries, having direct or indirect exposure to these countries, and/or whose banks, customers, service providers, sources of funding and/or suppliers have direct or indirect exposure to these countries. The default, or a significant decline in the credit rating, of one or more sovereigns or financial institutions could cause severe stress in the financial system generally and could adversely affect the markets in which the Group operates and the businesses and economic condition and prospects of the Group's counterparties or customers, directly or indirectly, in ways which are difficult to predict.

Expectations regarding the rate of inflation affect the interest rate and therefore affect the Group's net financial income. In addition, the interest cost for debt to financial institutions is one of the Group's main cost items. In the long term, changes in interest rates have a significant effect on the Issuer's and the Group's results and cash flow. Inflation also affects the Group's costs. Any such changes in the interest rate and the inflation may also affect the Yield requirements and thus the market value of the Group's properties.

If any of the above risks materialise, it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Geographical risks

The supply and demand for properties and the return on property investments varies between different geographical markets and may develop differently within such geographical markets. The Group has a diversified property portfolio with properties in different geographical markets within Sweden such as Oskarshamn, Ludvika, Norrköping, Linköping, Borlänge and Skaraborg. In addition, the Group has expanded its operations in Norway and Finland. Certain markets may be more sensitive to fluctuations in demand. If the demand for premises to lease declines in any or all of the geographical markets where the Group's properties are located, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Technical risks

Real estate investments involve technical risks. A technical risk can be described as the risk related to the technical operations of the properties, such as the risk of defects relating to the construction of the properties, other latent shortcomings or deficiencies, damages (for instance due to fire or other forces of nature) and environmental hazards. If any technical problems should occur with respect to the Group's properties, this may result in significantly increased costs for such properties which, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Rental Income and rental development

In the long term, Rental Income for commercial properties is affected by, inter alia, the supply and demand in the market. The Group's Rental Income will be affected by vacancies of its properties, contracted rental levels and whether the tenants pay their rents on time.

Decreased Occupancy Rates and rental rates will negatively affect the Group's earnings. This risk increases where a company has a high concentration of single large tenants. There is a risk that the Group's larger tenants do not renew or extend their lease agreements upon expiry, which in the long term could lead to a decrease in Rental Income and an increase in vacancies.

The Group is also dependent on the tenants paying their rents on time. The Issuer's and the Group's earnings and cash flow could be impacted negatively if tenants fail to make their payments, or otherwise do not fulfil their obligations.

Operating and maintenance costs

Tenants leasing social infrastructure premises typically have a relatively extensive liability for operations and maintenance. Operating costs are mainly costs that are tariff-based, such as costs for electricity, cleaning, water and heating. Several of these goods and services can be bought from only one provider, which may also increase the price. When a cost increase is not compensated through the lease, for example by an increase in rent by renegotiation of the lease agreement, it could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Maintenance costs include costs that are necessary in order to maintain the standard of the properties in the long term. The occurrence of unforeseen and extensive renovation needs on the Group's properties could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position (which have not been budgeted for).

Risks relating to the Issuer being dependent on cash flow from its subsidiaries

The Issuer is the ultimate parent company in the Group and does not conduct any business operations, but merely functions as a holding company for the operating business of the Group, with its business comprising of group management and group-wide functions. The Issuer's ability to make required payments of interest on its debts (including the Capital Securities) and funding is affected by the ability of its subsidiaries to transfer available cash resources to it. The transfer of funds to the Issuer from its subsidiaries may be restricted or prohibited by legal and contractual requirements applicable to the respective subsidiaries. Limitations or restrictions on the transfer of funds between companies within the Group may become more restrictive in the event that the Group experiences difficulties with respect to liquidity and its financial position which may negatively affect the Group's operations, earnings and financial position and in turn the performance of the Issuer under the Capital Securities. Furthermore, in the event of insolvency, liquidation or a similar event relating to one of the subsidiaries, all creditors of such subsidiary would be entitled to payment in full out of the assets of such subsidiary before the Issuer, as a shareholder, would be entitled to any payments. Thus, the Capital Securities are structurally subordinated to the liabilities of the subsidiaries of the Issuer.

Dependency on members of management and other key personnel

The knowledge, experience and commitment of the Group's employees are important for the Group's future development. If the Group is unable to retain members of management and other key personnel or recruit new members of management or other key personnel to replace people who leave the Group, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Acquisitions and sales of properties

The Group's property portfolios may vary over time and the acquisition and sale of additional properties and property-owning companies is a part of the Group's ordinary business and involves a degree of risk and uncertainty. This may lead to attractive properties or property-owning companies being disposed of and less attractive properties or property-owning companies being acquired. If attractive properties or property-owning companies were to be disposed of or less attractive properties or property-owning companies were to be acquired, the market value of the Group's property portfolios could decrease, which could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Selling properties involves uncertainties regarding, inter alia, achieving a reasonable sales price for the properties. Further, the Group may be subject to claims resulting from the sale or the condition of the sold properties. If the Group is unable to sell its properties on favourable terms or if claims are directed at the Group, this may lead to delays in projects as well as increased and unexpected costs for the properties and transactions.

The disposal of existing properties could also have a significant negative effect on the Group's cash flow if such properties are sold at a low price. If the properties are sold at a lower price than expected, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

The willingness and ability to pay for properties that the Group wishes to sell are affected by several factors. The willingness to pay for properties is dependent on how well the Group's properties are performing taking into account market demand, general price trends on the real estate market, as well as the supply, and cost of, other properties. The ability to pay for properties depends on the general wage trends, employment rates and other factors affecting the economy, such as the ability to make interest deductions and access to financing. These factors may affect potential buyers' willingness and ability to pay for the properties that the Group wishes to sell.

Risks relating to acquisitions and company integration

The Group is continuously exploring opportunities to acquire companies, and therefore the Group is exposed to the risk of unexpectedly increased transaction costs or cancelled acquisitions, which could have a negative effect on the Group's earnings and financial position. Due to the high frequency of acquisition(s), the Group is exposed to integration risks related to increased merging costs, organisational costs, risks related to the inability to retain key personnel and unexpected costs related to management of new tenants, unexpected environmental clean-up costs or costs related to unexpected real estate property condition and technical deficiencies in the acquired properties, such as design defects and other hidden deficiencies. There are also additional risks in relation to potential tax and legal liabilities associated with such acquisitions. Such increased costs could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Risks relating to developing and renovating projects

Developing new property as well as renovating existing properties or acquiring properties which are not fully vacant involves risks such as miscalculations of customer demand leading to unsold or unleased premises, lower profitability for the project and undesired tied-up capital on the balance sheet. Following the development of new property or the renovation of existing properties, where the Group is unable to lease such properties, or where the Rental Value of such properties turns out to be less profitable than expected, or where premises remain unsold and the Group has undesired tied-up capital on the balance sheet, any of these factors or a combination of them, could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Risks relating to local plans and permits for new construction and re-construction

The Group is involved in a number of development projects relating to its properties at any given time. Property development projects (including new construction, re-construction of buildings or changes of use) are subject to receipt of permits and decisions from authorities. Such permits and decisions may not always be granted which can cause delays, increased costs and even jeopardise the completion of such projects. Further, modified municipal planning may lead to local plans not being approved causing delays and increased costs resulting from the necessary restructuring of the project. If necessary permits or approvals are not obtained, this can cause delays, increase costs or even jeopardise the project's realisation, and these factors in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Group's earnings and financial position.

Risks relating to insurances

The Group has insured its operations against usual losses and/or potential liability in relation to third party claims. Certain types of losses and/or damages are generally not covered by insurance policies due to such losses being considered as impossible to insure, for example losses resulting from the act of war, terrorism, professional liability or personal liability (the latter two where damages are caused by negligence, wilful misconduct or criminal acts). Further, most of the Group's insurances (i.e. the insured amounts) are limited by specified maximum amounts per claim and specified insurance periods. In the event that a loss is not covered by the Group's insurance policies or where an incurred loss exceeds the maximum amount covered by the relevant insurance policy, the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position could be materially adversely affected.

Changes in value of properties

The Group's properties are reported at market value in the Group's consolidated balance sheet and with changes in value being shown in the income statement. Different factors may cause the Group to write down the fair value of its properties, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's earnings and financial position.

Such factors could both be property specific, such as rent levels, occupancy ratio and operative expenses, and market specific, such as macroeconomic effects, general economic trends, growth, unemployment levels, the rate of production of new premises, population growth, inflation and interest rates.

If the market value of the properties decreases and the relevant Group company writes down the value of them, it could result in a number of consequences, such as a breach of the covenants of the financing agreements that the relevant Group company has entered into from time to time, which in turn could result in such financings being accelerated prior to maturity and consequently affecting the liquidity of the Group. A material decrease of the market value of the properties could also have a negative impact on the Group's ability to dispose of its properties without incurring losses, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Operational risk

Operational risk is the risk of incurring losses due to inadequate systems or policies relating to, among other things, internal control, administration, competence development and access to reliable valuation and risk models. If the Group's systems or policies are not adequate to address operational risks that might arise, there is a risk that the Group may incur losses which could have a material negative impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

System malfunctions in the Group's operations may decrease the efficiency and/or profitability of the Group's operations

The Group's operations are dependent on information systems and on its ability to operate such information systems efficiently and to introduce new technologies, systems and safety and back-up systems. Such information systems include telecommunication systems as well as software applications that the Group uses to control business operations, manage its property portfolio and risks, prepare operating and financial reports and to execute treasury operations. The operation of the Group's information systems may be interrupted due to, among other things, power cuts, computer or telecommunication malfunctions, computer viruses, defaults by IT suppliers, crime targeted at information systems, such as security breaches and cyber-attacks from unauthorised persons outside and inside the Group, or major disasters, such as fires or natural disasters, as well as human error by the Group's own staff. Material interruptions or serious malfunctions in the operation of the information systems may impair and weaken the Group's operations, earnings and financial position. The Group may also face difficulties when developing new systems and maintaining or updating current systems in order to maintain its competitiveness. In particular, malfunctions in its IT systems could delay the Group in issuing rental invoices to, or securing tenancy agreements with, its customers. Materialisation of any of the above risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Environmental risks

The Group's operations in property management carry environmental risks. Property management and property development have an impact on the environment. The Swedish Environmental Code (Sw. Miljöbalken (1998:808)) (the Swedish Environmental Code) states that any person or entity that has conducted a business operation on its property which has contributed to contamination also has a responsibility for remediation of the property. If the responsible person cannot carry out or pay for the remediation of a contaminated property, the person who has acquired the property is liable for remediation provided that the buyer at the time of the acquisition knew of or should have discovered the contamination. This means that claims, under certain conditions, may be raised against the Group for soil remediation or for remediation concerning the presence or the suspicion of contamination in soil, water areas or ground water, in order to place the property in a satisfactory condition pursuant to the Swedish Environmental Code. If any significant claims in this respect are made against the Group's properties, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position. There is a risk that future environmental risks may materially affect the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings or financial position adversely.

Furthermore, any future changes to the laws, regulations and requirements from authorities in the environmental sector could result in increased costs for the Group with respect to sanitation or remediation regarding currently held or future acquired properties. Such changes could also result in increased costs or delays for the Group in carrying out any of its development projects. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Counterparty risk

The Group's current and potential customers may find themselves in situations, for example due to financial circumstances, where they cannot pay the agreed rent as it falls due or otherwise fail to fulfil their obligations under their rental agreements with respect to the Group's properties. Further, new developments and renovation projects may be delayed due to suppliers not being able to deliver on time or contractors being unable to finish projects as planned. If the Group's counterparties are unable or unwilling to fulfil their obligations towards the Issuer or any other Group company, it could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

In addition to the credit risks associated with its tenants/purchasers, the Group is exposed to credit risks relating to its financial operations. Such credit risks arise in connection with, among other things, investments of excess liquidity, entering into interest swap agreements and when entering into long-term and short-term credit agreements. If the counterparties in these operations cannot fulfil their obligations towards the Group, it could have a material adverse impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Competition

The Group operates in a competitive industry. The Group's competitiveness is, amongst other things, dependent on its ability to predict future changes in the industry and to quickly adapt to current and future market needs. It may become necessary for the Group to make significant investments, restructuring operations or price reductions in order to adapt to new competition and the Group's competitors may have greater resources and capabilities to better withstand downturns in the market, compete more effectively, retain skilled personnel and react faster to changes in local markets. The Group may have to make significant investments, restructurings or price reductions due to increased competition, and this could, in turn, have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group cannot meet its payment obligations under its financing arrangements. If the Group's liquidity sources prove not to be sufficient, it could have a material adverse impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position. There is also a risk that the cost for obtaining cash to service the Group's payment obligations increases significantly.

The Group is also exposed to risks arising from the illiquidity of its portfolio. The market for the types of properties the Group owns or may acquire in the future is generally illiquid. Were the Group required to liquidate parts of its portfolio on short notice for any reason, including raising funds to support its operations or repay outstanding indebtedness, the Group may not be able to sell any portion of its portfolio on favourable terms or at all. In the case of an accelerated sale, there may be a significant shortfall between the fair value of the property and the price at which the Group could sell such property. In planned disposals in the ordinary course of business, an illiquid market may result in a sales price that is lower than anticipated or in a delay to the sale. Any such shortfall could have a material adverse effect on the business, earnings or financial position of the Group. In addition, the Group may be subject to restrictions on its ability to sell properties pursuant to covenants and pledges limiting asset disposals in the Group's financing agreements.

Refinancing could turn out to be impossible or associated with heavily increased costs

Refinancing risk is the risk that financial costs could be higher and/or the refinancing possibilities could be limited or non-existent when the debt owed by the Issuer or any other Group company falls due and needs to be refinanced.

The Group's business is partly financed by externally provided capital. The majority of the capital required to finance the development of the Group's existing properties and future acquisitions by the Group is and will be provided by banks, credit institutions or other lenders.

There is a risk that lenders will not extend credit to the Group when the loans mature, that there are no alternative credit facilities available or that credit will be provided at a significantly higher cost than as at present. Further, certain loan agreements and terms and conditions of debt instruments contain provisions which may limit the Issuer's and the Group's ability to incur new debt.

The Issuer is planning on renegotiating certain loan agreements with its creditors within the next 24-month period. Should the Issuer not receive equally or more beneficial terms for such loans than its present terms, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

During the financial crisis, the volatility and disruption in the financial and credit markets resulted in a reduction in liquidity and higher credit risk premiums for many credit institutions. While the turmoil in the financial markets has eased in recent years due to central banks' quantitative easing programmes, there is still uncertainty and volatility in the financial markets. If the Issuer or any other Group company cannot refinance its debt or is only able to do so at much higher costs, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's earnings and financial position.

Historical earnings not indicating future performance

The financial information provided for and discussed in the Prospectus and the financial statements of the Group included in the Prospectus relate to the past performance of the Issuer and the Group. The future development of the Group could deviate significantly from past results due to a large number of internal and external factors. The historical earnings, historical dividends and other historical financial data of the Group are, therefore, not necessarily predictive of earnings or other key financial figures for the Group going forward.

There can be no assurance that the Group will be successful in implementing its strategy or achieving its financial targets or investment objectives

No assurance can be given that the implementation of the Group's strategy and/or the achievement of its financial targets or investment objectives will be successful under current or future market conditions. The Group's approach may be modified and altered from time to time. It is therefore possible that the approach adopted to implement its strategy and achieve its financial targets and investment objectives in the future may be different from that presently expected to be used and disclosed in this Prospectus. Moreover, the availability of potential investments that meet the Group's acquisition criteria will depend on the state of the economy and financial markets in the countries in which the Group operates or is interested in entering into. The Group can offer no assurance that it will be able to identify and make investments that are consistent with its acquisition criteria or investment strategy.

Interest-rate risk

Aside from equity contributions, the Group's operations are largely financed by borrowings, including loans from credit institutions and listed bonds and, as a result, the cost of interest payments on such debts is one of the Group's main expenses. Changes in interest rates can affect the Group's profitability by affecting the spread between, among other things, the income on its assets and the expense of its interest-bearing liabilities, the value of any interest-earning assets, its ability to make acquisitions and its ability to realise gains from the sale of its assets. Market interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors, including the expected inflation rate, governmental, monetary and tax policies, domestic and international economic and political considerations, fiscal deficits, regulatory requirements and other factors beyond the Group's control. The short-term interest rates are mainly determined by reference to the respective national bank's repo rate, which is a monetary policy rate. In times of increasing inflation expectations, the interest rate can be expected to increase and in times of decreasing inflation expectations, the interest rate can be expected to decrease.

The Group's interest costs are mainly affected by the current market interest rate, the margin imposed by credit institutions and the method for determining the rate of interest on the debts entered into by the Group. With respect to fixed rate debt, a longer average fixed interest term on the Group's debts means that the Group is tied to a fixed interest rate that may or may not be in line with the prevailing market interest rate. With respect to floating rate debt, the Group's floating rate loan expenses may increase with a rise in market interest rates. An increase in interest rates may increase the Group's interest expense and this could have a material adverse impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may adversely affect the Group's profit and property value

The Group is exposed to foreign exchange translation risk due to its investments in Finland and Norway. The Group's most significant exchange rate risk relates currently to NOK Rental Income, maintenance costs and property valuation. The Group's reporting currency is SEK, and all balance sheet items for foreign properties as well as all income and expenses generated by them are converted to SEK. Materialisation of the translation risk could have an adverse effect on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

The Issuer is dependent on its current long-term credit rating to pursue its financing strategy

The Issuer has sought and obtained a long-term issuer credit rating. If the Issuer's long-term credit ratings were to be downgraded, future issuances of bonds and notes may become significantly more expensive or may not be possible in the targeted amounts. A credit rating agency could downgrade the Issuer's long-term issuer credit rating if, for example, the value of the Issuer's unencumbered assets was not to reach certain levels, or the Issuer's effective leverage (adjusted total debt divided by total assets) or fixed charge cover ratios were to exceed certain levels, both on a sustainable basis, or the Issuer was unable to maintain an adequate liquidity profile at all times. If any of the risks described above were to materialise, it would be more difficult for the Issuer to pursue its current financing strategy, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Joint ventures may introduce additional risks to the Issuer

The Issuer does not have a controlling interest in certain of the businesses (i.e. joint ventures) in which it has invested and may invest in other businesses where it will not have a controlling interest in the future. Due to the absence of full control of joint ventures and associates, important decisions such as the approval of business plans and the timing and amount of cash distributions and capital expenditures may require the consent of partners or may be approved without the Issuer's consent. In addition, the lack of controlling interest may give rise to the non-realisation of operating synergies and lower cash flows than anticipated at the time of investment, thereby increasing the likelihood of impairment of goodwill or other assets. These limitations could impair the Issuer's ability to manage joint ventures effectively and/or realise the strategic goals for these businesses. In addition, improper management or ineffective policies, procedures or controls for non-controlled entities could adversely affect the operations, earnings and financial position of the relevant joint venture investment and of the Group.

Reputational risk

The Issuer is dependent on its reputation. The Issuer's reputation is particularly important in relation to new and current tenants. As an example, operative problems or maintenance problems could damage the Issuer's reputation, which could lead to difficulties attracting new, or keeping current, tenants. The Issuer may also be negatively exposed in public media, with a limited ability to anticipate or respond to such publications. Damage to the Issuer's reputation could lead to loss of income or loss of growth potential, which could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Legal risks

The Group's business is regulated by and must be conducted in accordance with several laws and regulations, (inter alia, the Swedish Companies Act (Sw. aktiebolagslagen (2005:551)), the Swedish Land Code (Sw. Jordabalken (1970:994)), the Swedish Environmental Code (Sw. Miljöbalken (1998:808)) and the Swedish Planning and Building Act (Sw. plan- och bygglagen (2010:900))), detailed development plans, building standards and security regulations, amongst others. There is a risk that the Group's interpretation of applicable laws and regulations may be incorrect or that such laws or regulations or their interpretation may change in the future. The Issuer and other Group companies may also be required to apply for various permits and registrations with municipalities and authorities in order to pursue property development. There is a risk that the Issuer or any other Group company will not be granted necessary permits or other decisions for its business activities or that such permits or decisions are appealed, which may result in increased costs and delay in planned development of properties or otherwise have a negative impact on the conduct and development of its business.

The Group operates part of its business in Norway and Finland, where domestic law applies on certain agreements and facilities. Similar legal risks may apply to the interpretation of foreign law, requirements for permits and registration in Norway and Finland and the general development of Norwegian and Finnish law.

New laws or regulations, or changes concerning the application of existing laws or regulations that are applicable to the Group's business activities or the tenants' business activities could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Tax risks

The Group's business is conducted in accordance with the Group's interpretation of applicable tax laws, treaties and regulations. However, in the event that the Group's interpretation of tax laws, treaties and regulations or their applicability is incorrect, a governmental authority successfully makes negative tax adjustments with regard to an entity of the Group or if the applicable laws, treaties, regulations or governmental interpretations thereof or administrative practice in relation thereto change, including with retroactive effect, the Group's past or current tax positions may be challenged. In the event tax authorities were to succeed with such claims, this could result in an increased tax cost, including tax surcharges and interest, which could have a negative impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

The Group's operations are affected by the tax rules in force from time to time. Since the laws, treaties and other regulations on taxation, as well as other fiscal charges, have historically been subject to frequent changes, further changes are expected in the future in the jurisdictions where the Group operates, possibly with a retroactive effect. Any such changes could have a material adverse effect on the Group's tax burden, as well as a negative impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

It is currently unclear under Swedish tax law whether equity-accounted periodical payments on perpetual instruments, such as interest payments in relation to the Capital Securities, are tax deductible for the payor. Also, even if the payments are generally considered tax deductible for the Issuer, the deductibility may, similar to other interest expenses for Swedish entities within the Group, be limited by the Swedish general interest deduction limitation rules.

The Swedish general interest deduction limitation rules entered into force on 1 January 2019. Under the rules, a general limitation of interest deductions in the corporate sector is introduced where the cap for a deduction of net interest expenses is calculated as 30 per cent. of tax EBITDA, with certain exceptions. Under Swedish tax laws and regulations, interest deductibility is calculated for each legal entity separately and, accordingly, these rules will apply to all Swedish entities within the Group. In connection with the introduction of the new interest limitation rules, the corporate income tax rate was as a first step reduced from 22 per cent. to 21.4 per cent. (as per 1 January 2019) and will as a second step be reduced from 21.4 per cent. to 20.6 per cent. (as per 1 January 2021). If the Swedish Group entities' net interest expenses, following the implementation of the rules, represent a substantial portion in relation to their tax EBITDA, or if any other additional restriction on the deductibility of interest expenses is introduced in Sweden, the Group's tax burden could, despite the lowering of the corporate income tax rate, increase and this could have a negative impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Also, on 30 March 2017, a committee appointed by the Swedish government presented a law proposal (SOU 2017:27) that, if enacted, is likely to affect the future taxation of real estate investments. The proposal includes, inter alia, that the deferred tax liability related to the difference between tax residual value and market value on properties will be triggered upon a change of control of a real estate owning company and that such a change of control should also trigger a taxable notional income in the real estate owning company (to compensate for the fact that indirect sales of properties are not subject to stamp duty). The Swedish government has communicated that the law proposal is subject to further review and it is currently unclear if, and to what extent, the proposal will result in new legislation. If the law proposal is implemented in its current form, this could lead to tax being imposed upon all of the Group's future disposals of property owning companies. Depending on the difference between fair market value and tax residual value of the Swedish properties held by the Group, this could have a negative impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Accounting risks

The Group is affected by current applicable accounting legislation and accounting principles. This means that the Group's accounting, financial reporting and internal control, in the future, may be affected and in need of adaption to new accounting principles and or changed application of such legislation. This could lead to uncertainty regarding the Issuer's accounting, financial reporting and internal control and could also affect the Group's reported earnings, balance sheet and equity, which could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Disputes and litigation

The Issuer faces the risk of litigation and other proceedings in relation to its business. The outcome of any litigation may expose the Issuer to unexpected costs and losses, reputational and other non-financial consequences and divert management attention. In addition, the outcome of litigation and other proceedings may attract negative publicity, and the Issuer's reputation may be impacted in a way which could have a material adverse effect on its results of operations, earnings and financial position.

EU General Data Protection Regulation

The EU adopted a new general data protection regulation 2016/679/EU (GDPR), which entered into force on 24 May 2016 and applies from 25 May 2018. The main objectives of the GDPR are to harmonise EU laws on personal data and facilitate the flows of data across EU as well as to ensure that personal data enjoys a high standard of protection everywhere in the EU. The GDPR includes new requirements for the handling of personal data. Failure to comply with the GDPR could subject the Group to substantial monetary fines which could have a material negative impact on the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Covenants in credit agreements

If a Group company is in breach of any of its covenants (e.g. financial covenants) in its loan agreements or terms and conditions of debt instruments, it could lead to loans or debt instruments being accelerated, leading to immediate repayment or the creditor taking possession of security. Further, certain loan agreements and terms and conditions of debt instruments contain cross-default provisions which could trigger the acceleration of other payment obligations within the Group. A breach of any covenant could therefore have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Change of control and ownership

Some of the Group's credit agreements and terms and conditions of debt instruments contain change of control provisions that may be triggered by a change of control and/or ownership of the Issuer or another Group company, whereby the creditor may have the right to accelerate the loan or debt instrument.

Should change of control provisions in the Group's credit agreements and/or terms and conditions of debt instruments be triggered, which gives the creditor a right to accelerate the loan or debt instrument, it could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Dividend restrictions

Some of the Group's credit arrangements and terms and conditions of debt instruments contain provisions that restrict the possibility to pay dividends. For example, Group companies may not pay dividends if a certain debt/equity ratio requirement is not met after such payment. There is a risk that such provisions restrict the ability to move funds within the Group and thus may impede the execution of scheduled renovation of properties. If the Group's properties may not be renovated as scheduled, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's and the Group's operations, earnings and financial position.

Factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with the Capital Securities

Risks related to the Capital Securities generally

Set out below is a brief description of certain risks relating to the Capital Securities generally.

The claims of holders of the Capital Securities are structurally subordinated to those of certain other creditors of the Issuer and to creditors of the Issuer's subsidiaries

Generally, lenders and trade and other creditors of the Issuer's subsidiaries are entitled to payment of their claims from the assets of such subsidiaries before these assets would be available for distribution to the Issuer, as direct or indirect shareholder, which would then allow for the Issuer to make payments under the Capital Securities. Any debt that the Issuer's subsidiaries may incur in the future will also rank structurally senior to Capital Securities.

A significant part of the Group's assets and revenues are generated by the Issuer's subsidiaries. The subsidiaries are legally separated from the Issuer and the subsidiaries' ability to make payments to the Issuer is restricted by, among other things, the availability of funds, corporate restrictions and local law. Furthermore, in the event of insolvency, liquidation or a similar event relating to one of the subsidiaries, all creditors of such subsidiary would be entitled to payment in full out of the assets of such subsidiary before any entity within the Group, as a shareholder, would be entitled to any payments. Thus, the Capital Securities are structurally subordinated to the liabilities of the subsidiaries of the Issuer.

The market price of the Capital Securities may be volatile

The market price of the Capital Securities could be subject to significant fluctuations in response to actual or anticipated variations in the Issuer's operating results and those of its competitors, adverse business developments, changes to the regulatory environment in which the Issuer operates, changes in financial estimates by securities analysts and the actual or expected sale of a large number of the Capital Securities, as well as other factors. In addition, in recent years the global financial markets have experienced significant price and volume fluctuations, which, if repeated in the future, could adversely affect the market price of the Capital Securities without regard to the Issuer's results of operations, prospects or financial condition. Factors including increased competition or the Issuer's operating results, the regulatory environment, general market conditions, natural disasters, terrorist attacks and war may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Capital Securities.

Laws and practices applicable to the Capital Securities may change

The Conditions are based on and governed by English law (other than the Conditions relating to subordination of the Capital Securities, which are based on and governed by Swedish law) in force on the issue date. Any new statutes, ordinances and regulations, amendments to the legislation or changes in application of the law (including any amendments to or changes in application of tax laws or regulations) after the issue date may affect the Capital Securities and/or have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects, and, thereby, on the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Capital Securities as well as the market price and value of the Capital Securities.

Denominations involve integral multiples; definitive Capital Securities

The Capital Securities have denominations consisting of a minimum of EUR 100,000 plus integral multiples of EUR 1,000 in excess thereof up to and including EUR 199,000. It is possible that the Capital Securities may be traded in amounts that are not integral multiples of EUR 100,000. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a principal amount which is less than EUR 100,000 in its account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a principal amount of Capital Securities at or in excess of EUR 100,000 such that its holding amounts to EUR 100,000 or a higher integral multiple of EUR 1,000. Further, a holder of the Capital Securities (each a Holder) who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a principal amount which is less than EUR 100,000 in its account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Capital Security in respect of such holding (should definitive Capital Securities be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Capital Securities such that its holding amounts to EUR 100,000.

If definitive Capital Securities are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Capital Securities which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of EUR 100,000 may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Modification, Waivers and Substitution

The Conditions contain provisions for calling meetings of Holders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Holders including Holders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Holders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Conditions also provide that the Issuer may, without the consent of Holders, amend the Capital Securities, the Conditions or the Deed of Covenant, if the modification is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is to correct a manifest error. The Conditions provide that the Issuer may, without the consent of the Holders agree to the substitution of another company as the principal debtor in relation to the Capital Securities, all in the circumstances described in the Conditions of the Capital Securities.

Investors will have to rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg

The Capital Securities will be represented by the Global Capital Security except in certain limited circumstances described in the Global Capital Securities. The Global Capital Security will be deposited with a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in certain limited circumstances described in the Global Capital Security, investors will not be entitled to receive Capital Securities in definitive form. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Capital Security. While the Capital Securities are represented by the Global Capital Security, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. The Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Capital Securities by making payments to the common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Capital Security must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under the Capital Securities. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Capital Security.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Capital Security will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the Capital Securities. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to appoint appropriate proxies.

Holders of Capital Securities have no voting rights

The Capital Securities are non-voting with respect to general meetings of the Issuer. Consequently, the holders of the Capital Securities cannot influence, inter alia, any decisions by the Issuer to defer payments or to optionally settle outstanding payments or any other decisions by the Issuer's shareholders concerning the capital structure of the Issuer.

Risks Related to the Market Generally

An active trading market for the Capital Securities may not develop

The Capital Securities may have no established trading market when issued, and the Issuer cannot assure investors that an active trading market for the Capital Securities will develop or be maintained. If a market does develop, it may not be liquid. In addition, liquidity may be limited if the Issuer makes large allocations to a limited number of investors. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Capital Securities at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. A lack of liquidity may have a material adverse effect on the market value of the Capital Securities.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls exist to the extent payments in respect of the Capital Securities are made in a currency other than the currency in which an investor's activities are denominated

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Capital Securities in euros. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the Investor's Currency) other than in euros. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the euros or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to euros would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Capital Securities, (2) the Investor's Currency-equivalent value of the principal payable on the Capital Securities and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Capital Securities.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Capital Securities. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal. Changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Capital Securities. Investment in the Capital Securities involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Capital Securities, since the Capital Securities have a fixed rate of interest and prevailing interest rates in the future may be higher than that fixed rate of interest.

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks

The Issuer's credit ratings are an assessment by the relevant rating agencies of its ability to pay its debts when due. Consequently, real or anticipated changes in its credit ratings will generally affect the market value of the Capital Securities. One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Capital Securities. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to the structure and marketing of the Capital Securities and additional factors discussed in this Prospectus or any other factors that may affect the value of the Capital Securities. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In addition, S&P or Fitch or any other rating agency may change their methodologies or their application for rating securities with features similar to the Capital Securities in the future. This may include the relationship between ratings assigned to an issuer's senior securities and ratings assigned to securities with features similar to the Capital Securities, sometimes called "notching". If the rating agencies were to change their practices or their application for rating such securities in the future and the ratings of the Capital Securities were to be subsequently lowered, this may have a negative impact on the trading price of the Capital Securities. If as a consequence of an amendment, clarification or change in the equity credit criteria of any Rating Agency (as defined in the Conditions), the Capital Securities are no longer eligible for the same or higher category of equity credit attributed to the Capital Securities at the date of their issue (or if equity credit is not assigned on the issue date, at the date when the equity credit is assigned for the first time), the Issuer may redeem the Capital Securities in whole, but not in part, as further described in the Conditions.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended), subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances whilst the registration application is pending. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended).

The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list.

Risks related to the structure of the Capital Securities

The Capital Securities are subordinated obligations; accordingly, claims in respect of the Capital Securities would rank junior to claims in respect of unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer in the event of an Issuer Winding-up or Issuer Re-construction

The Capital Securities are direct, unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer. In the event of a Winding-up (as defined in the Conditions), the Holders will have a claim ranking behind claims of unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer and creditors of the Issuer in respect of all Subordinated Indebtedness (as defined in the Conditions), pari passu without any preference among themselves and with any present and future claims in respect of obligations of the Issuer in respect of Parity Securities (as defined in the Conditions) and in priority to any present and future claims in respect of (i) any class of Share Capital (as defined in the Conditions) of the Issuer and (ii) any other obligation of the Issuer which ranks or is expressed by its terms to rank junior to the Capital Securities or any Parity Security.

In the event of an Issuer Re-construction (as defined in the Conditions), the Holders will have a statutory claim ranking pari passu among themselves and with any present or future claims in respect of obligations of the Issuer in respect of Parity Securities, but junior to any present or future claims in respect of all unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and all Subordinated Indebtedness (as defined in the Conditions).

In the event of an Issuer Re-construction, unsecured debt could be subject to a mandatory write-down provided that a qualified majority of the unsecured creditors has approved such write-down. All unsecured debt will then be written down pro rata. A debt composition proposal, which yields at least 50 per cent. of the amount of the unsecured debt, shall be deemed to be accepted by the creditors, where three-fifths of the creditors voting have accepted the proposal and their claims amount to three-fifths of the total amount of claims held by the creditors entitled to vote. Where the debt composition percentage is lower, the debt composition proposal shall be deemed to be accepted where three-fourths of the creditors voting have approved the proposal and their claims amount to three-fourths of the total amount of the claims held by the creditors entitled to vote. If a debt composition is approved, all subordinated debt of the Issuer, including the Capital Securities, will be completely written-off. In respect of subordinated debt it is important to notice that subordinated creditors may only take part in the creditors' meeting voting on a proposed debt composition provided the unsubordinated creditors consent to such participation. Potential investors should note that claims in respect of the share capital of the Issuer are not subject to loss absorbing measures under an Issuer Re-construction.

In the event of an Issuer Winding-up or an Issuer Re-construction, Holders will only be eligible to recover any amounts in respect of their Capital Securities if all claims in respect of more senior-ranking obligations of the Issuer (whether secured or unsecured) have first been paid in full. If on an Issuer Winding-up or Issuer Re-construction, the assets of the Issuer are insufficient to repay the claims of all senior-ranking creditors in full, the Holders will lose their entire investment in the Capital Securities. If there are sufficient assets to repay the claims of senior-ranking creditors in full but insufficient assets to enable it to pay claims in respect of the Capital Securities and all other obligations of the Issuer ranking pari passu with the Capital Securities, Holders will lose some or substantially all of their investment in the Capital Securities. The Holders therefore face a higher recovery risk than holders of unsubordinated obligations and Subordinated Indebtedness (as defined in the Conditions) of the Issuer. Furthermore, the Conditions do not limit the amount of the liabilities ranking senior to or pari passu with the Capital Securities which may be incurred or assumed by the Issuer from time to time, whether before or after the issue date of the Capital Securities.

Furthermore, subject to applicable law, no Holder may exercise, claim or plead any right of set-off, compensation or retention in respect of any amount owed to it by the Issuer in respect of, or arising under or in connection with, the Capital Securities and each Holder shall, by virtue of their holding, be deemed to have waived all such rights of set-off, compensation or retention.

In addition, if the financial condition of the Issuer deteriorates such that Issuer Winding-up may be anticipated, the market price of the Capital Securities can be expected to fall, and such fall may be significant. A Holder that sells its Capital Securities in such an event may lose some or substantially all of its initial investment in the Capital Securities (whether or not an Issuer Winding-up subsequently occurs).

The Capital Securities are undated securities and therefore an investment in the Capital Securities constitutes a financial risk for an indefinite period

The Capital Securities are perpetual securities in respect of which there is no fixed redemption date. The Issuer is under no obligation to redeem the Capital Securities at any time and Holders have no right to call for redemption of the Capital Securities.

Therefore, prospective investors should be aware that they may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in the Capital Securities for a long period and may not recover their investment before the end of this period.

The Issuer may defer interest payments

The Issuer may, under the Conditions, at any time and in its sole discretion (except on any Interest Payment Date on which the Capital Securities are to be redeemed), elect to defer payment of all (but not some only) of the interest which would otherwise be paid on any Interest Payment Date (as defined in the Conditions), and the Issuer shall not have any obligation to make such payment and any failure to pay shall not constitute a default by the Issuer for any purpose.

Any interest not paid on an applicable Interest Payment Date and deferred shall constitute Deferred Interest and shall be paid in whole, but not in part, at any time, at the option of the Issuer or on the occurrence of certain mandatory settlement events described in the Conditions.

Any deferral of interest payments will be likely to have an adverse effect on the market price of the Capital Securities. In addition, as a result of such interest deferral provisions of the Capital Securities, the market price of the Capital Securities may be more volatile than the market prices of other debt securities on which interest accrues that are not subject to the above provisions and may be more sensitive generally to adverse changes in the Issuer's financial condition.

The Issuer may redeem the Capital Securities early; investors should consider reinvestment risk

The Issuer will have the right to redeem the Capital Securities in whole, but not in part, on any of the 90 days up to and including the First Reset Date or any Interest Payment Date thereafter, at their principal amount together with any Deferred Interest and any other accrued and unpaid interest to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

The Issuer may also, at its option, redeem the Capital Securities in whole, but not in part, upon the occurrence of a Tax Deductibility Event, a Capital Event, a Change of Control Event, a Withholding Tax Event, an Accounting Event or a Substantial Repurchase Event with respect to the Capital Securities, as further described in the Conditions.

In the case of a Tax Deductibility Event, an Accounting Event or a Capital Event, such redemption will be at (i) 101 per cent. of the principal amount of the Capital Securities, where such redemption occurs before the date falling 90 days prior to the First Reset Date, or (ii) 100 per cent. of the principal amount of the Capital Securities, where such redemption occurs on or after the date falling 90 days prior to the First Reset Date, together in each case with any Deferred Interest and any other accrued and unpaid interest up to (but excluding) the redemption date.

In the case of a Withholding Tax Event, a Change of Control Event or a Substantial Repurchase Event, such redemption will be at 100 per cent. of the principal amount of the Capital Securities, together with any Deferred Interest and any other accrued and unpaid interest up to (but excluding) the redemption date.

During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem the Capital Securities, the market value of the Capital Securities generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed.

The Issuer might redeem the Capital Securities when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Capital Securities. There can be no assurance that, at the relevant time, Holders will be able to reinvest the amounts received upon redemption at a rate that will provide the same return as their investment in the Capital Securities. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Substitution or variation of the Capital Securities

There is a risk that, after the issue of the Capital Securities, a Tax Deductibility Event, a Capital Event, an Accounting Event or a Withholding Tax Event may occur which would entitle the Issuer, without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Holders, to substitute all, but not some only, of the Capital Securities for, or vary the terms of the Capital Securities so that they become or remain, Qualifying Capital Securities (as defined in the Conditions).

Whilst Qualifying Capital Securities are required to have terms which are not materially less favourable to Holders than the terms of the Capital Securities (as reasonably determined by the Issuer in consultation with an independent investment bank, independent financial adviser or legal counsel of international standing), there can be no assurance that the Qualifying Capital Securities will not have a significant adverse impact on the price of, and/or the market for, the Capital Securities, nor that there will not be any adverse tax consequences for any Holders of the Capital Securities arising from such substitution or variation.

Fixed rate securities have a market risk

The Capital Securities will bear interest at a fixed rate, reset by reference to the 5 Year EUR Mid-Swap Rate plus a margin on the First Reset Date for the Capital Securities and on each fifth anniversary of such first reset date. A holder of a security with a fixed interest rate is exposed to the risk that the price of such security falls as a result of changes in the current interest rate on the capital market (the Market Interest Rate). While the nominal interest rate of a security with a fixed interest rate is fixed during the life of such security or during a certain period of time, the Market Interest Rate typically changes on a daily basis. A change of the Market Interest Rate may cause the price of such security to change. If the Market Interest Rate increases, the price of such security typically falls. If the Market Interest Rate falls, the price of a security with a fixed interest rate typically increases. Potential investors should be aware that movements of the Market Interest Rate can adversely affect the price of the Capital Securities and can lead to losses for the Holders if they sell such Capital Securities.

Each Reset Interest Rate may be different from the initial interest rate of the Capital Securities and may adversely affect the yield of such Capital Securities.

Reform and Regulation of "benchmarks"

So-called benchmarks such as ICE Swap Rate referenced swap rates and other indices which are deemed "benchmarks" (each a Benchmark and together, the Benchmarks), to which the interest on the Capital Securities during any Reset Period is linked, have become the subject of regulatory scrutiny and recent national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on the value of and the amount payable under the Capital Securities. International proposals for reform of Benchmarks include the European Council's Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds (the Benchmark Regulation) which was published in the official journal on 29 June 2016 and has applied from 1 January 2018.

Any changes to a Benchmark as a result of the Benchmark Regulation or other initiatives, could have a material adverse effect on the costs of refinancing a Benchmark or the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a Benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or participate in certain Benchmarks, trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain Benchmarks or lead to the disappearance of certain Benchmarks. Although it is uncertain whether or to what extent any of the abovementioned changes and/or any further changes in the administration or method of determining a Benchmark could have an effect on the value of the Capital Securities, investors should be aware that they face the risk that any changes to the relevant Benchmark may have a material adverse effect on the value of and the amount payable under the Capital Securities.

Holders of the Capital Securities have very limited rights in relation to the enforcement of payments on the Capital Securities

If a default is made by the Issuer for a period of 30 days or more in relation to the payment of any interest, principal or premium in respect of the Capital Securities which is due and payable, the rights of the Holders in respect of the Capital Securities are limited to instituting proceedings for an Issuer Winding-up, and the Holders may prove and/or claim in respect of the Capital Securities in an Issuer Winding-up.

Whilst the claims of the Holders in an Issuer Winding-up are for the principal amount of their Capital Securities together with any Deferred Interest and any other accrued and unpaid interest, such claims will be subordinated as provided above under "The Capital Securities are subordinated obligations; accordingly, claims in respect of the Capital Securities would rank junior to claims in respect of unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer in the event of an Issuer Winding-up". The Holders shall not be entitled to accelerate payments of interest or principal under the Capital Securities in any circumstances outside an Issuer Winding-up. Furthermore, whilst the Holders may institute other proceedings against the Issuer to enforce the terms of the Capital Securities, the Issuer shall not, by virtue of such proceedings, be obliged to pay any sum or sums sooner than the same would otherwise have been payable by it.

Accordingly, the Holders' rights of enforcement in respect of payments under the Capital Securities are very limited.

No limitation on issuing or guaranteeing debt ranking senior to or pari passu with the Capital Securities

There is no restriction in the Conditions on the amount of debt which the Issuer may issue or guarantee. The Issuer and its subsidiaries and affiliates may incur additional indebtedness or grant guarantees in respect of indebtedness or guarantees of third parties, including indebtedness that ranks pari passu with or senior to the Capital Securities. The issue of any such securities or the incurrence of any such other liabilities may reduce the amount (if any) recoverable by Holders on an Issuer Winding-up and/or may increase the likelihood of a deferral of interest payments under the Capital Securities.

The current IFRS accounting classification of financial instruments such as the Notes as equity instruments may change, which may result in the occurrence of an Accounting Event

In June 2018, the IASB (International Accounting Standards Board) published the discussion paper DP/2018/1 on "Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Equity", (the "DP/2018/1 Paper"). If the proposals set out in the DP/2018/1 Paper are implemented in their current form, the current IFRS accounting classification of financial instruments such as the Capital Securities as equity instruments may change and this may result in the occurrence of an Accounting Event. In such an event, the Issuer may have the option to redeem, in whole but not in part, the Capital Securities (pursuant to Condition 6(c)). The implementation of any of the proposals set out in the DP/2018/1 Paper or any other similar such proposals that may be made in the future, including the extent and timing of any such implementation, if at all, is uncertain. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the future classification of the Capital Securities from an accounting perspective or whether any such change may result in the occurrence of an Accounting Event, thereby providing the Issuer with the option to redeem the Capital Securities pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Capital Securities.

For a description of the risks related to the early redemption of the Capital Securities, see the Risk Factor entitled "The Issuer may redeem the Capital Securities early; investors should consider reinvestment risk".

Discontinuation of the Original Reference Rate

The Conditions provide that, if a Benchmark Event (as defined in the Conditions) (which, amongst other events, includes the Original Reference Rate ceasing to exist, be administered or be published) occurs, the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser. The Issuer and the Independent Adviser shall endeavour to determine a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate to be used in place of the Original Reference Rate. The use of any such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate to determine the Reset Interest Rate for a Reset Period may result in the Capital Securities performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Reset Interest Rate for such Reset Period) than they would do if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply.

If a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined by the Issuer and the Independent Adviser, the terms and conditions of the Capital Securities also provide that an Adjustment Spread may be determined by the Issuer and the Independent Adviser and applied to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate. The aim of the Adjustment Spread is to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable, any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Holders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate. However, it may not be possible to determine or apply an Adjustment Spread and, even if an Adjustment Spread is applied, such Adjustment Spread may not be effective to reduce or eliminate economic prejudice to Holders. If no Adjustment Spread can be determined, a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate may nonetheless be used to determine the Reset Interest Rate for a Reset Period. The use of any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (including with the application of an Adjustment Spread) may still result in the Capital Securities performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Reset Interest Rate for such Reset Period) than they would if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form.

Furthermore, if a Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread, as applicable, is determined by the Issuer and the Independent Adviser, the terms and conditions of the Capital Securities provide that the Issuer and the Independent Adviser may agree to vary the terms and conditions of the Capital Securities, as necessary, to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread, as applicable, without any requirement for consent or approval of the Holders.

Notwithstanding the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, the Issuer may be unable to appoint an Independent Adviser in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Capital Securities, or the Issuer and the Independent Adviser may not be able to determine, or may not agree on the selection of, a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Capital Securities before the Reset Determination Date in respect of a Reset Period. In such circumstances, the Conditions provide for certain additional fall-back provisions which may result in (i) the 5 Year EUR Mid-Swap Rate being set by reference to offered quotations from banks communicated to the Calculation Agent or (ii) the last 5 Year EUR Mid-Swap Rate that was available on the Reset Screen Page being used to determine the Reset Interest Rate for a Reset Period.

If the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser or the Issuer and the Independent Adviser fail to determine, or do not agree on the selection of, a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate for the life of the Capital Securities, this could result in the Capital Securities, in effect, becoming fixed rate securities.

Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and return on the Capital Securities.

Interests of the Issuer's shareholders may conflict with those of the holders of the Capital Securities

The interests of the Issuer's shareholders, in certain circumstances, may conflict with those of the Holders, particularly if the Issuer encounters financial difficulties or is unable to pay its debts when due. In addition, the Issuer's shareholders may have an interest in pursuing acquisitions, divestitures, financings or other transactions that, in their judgment, could enhance their equity investments, even though such transactions might involve risks to the Holders. Any of these actions could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements included in this Prospectus may constitute "forward-looking statements". Forward-looking statements are all statements in this Prospectus that do not relate to historical facts and events, and include statements concerning the Issuer's plans, objectives, goals, strategies and future operations and performance and the assumptions underlying these forward-looking statements. The Issuer uses the words "may", "will", "could", "believes", "assumes", "intends", "estimates", "expects", "plans", "seeks", "approximately", "aims", "projects", "anticipates" or similar expressions, or the negative thereof, to generally identify forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are set forth in a number of places in this Prospectus, including (without limitation) in the sections "Risk Factors" and "Information about the Issuer". The Issuer has based these forward-looking statements on the current view with respect to future events and financial performance. These views involve uncertainties and are subject to certain risks, the occurrence of which could cause actual results to differ materially from those predicted in the forward-looking statements contained in this Prospectus and from past results, performance or achievements. Although the Issuer believes that the estimates and the projections reflected in its forward-looking statements are reasonable, if one or more of the risks or uncertainties materialise or occur, including those which the Issuer has identified in this Prospectus, or if any of the Issuer's underlying assumptions prove to be incomplete or incorrect, the Issuer's actual results of operations may vary from those expected, estimated or projected.

These forward-looking statements are made only as at the date of this Prospectus. Except to the extent required by law, the Issuer is not obliged to, and does not intend to, update or revise any forward-looking statements made in this Prospectus whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. All subsequent written or oral forward-looking statements attributable to the Issuer, or persons acting on the Issuer's behalf, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained throughout this Prospectus. As a result of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, a prospective purchaser of the Capital Securities should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CAPITAL SECURITIES

The following, except for paragraphs in italics, is the text of the terms and conditions of the Capital Securities which, subject to modification, will be endorsed on each Capital Security in definitive form (if issued):

The EUR 300,000,000 Subordinated Fixed to Reset Rate 5.25 year Non-Call Undated Capital Securities (the Capital Securities, which expression includes any Further Capital Securities issued pursuant to Condition 17 (Further Issues) and forming a single series therewith) of Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB (publ) AB (the Issuer) are the subject of a fiscal agency agreement dated 26 April 2019 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the Agency Agreement) between the Issuer, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, as fiscal agent (the Fiscal Agent), paying agent (together with the Fiscal Agent and any successor or additional paying agent appointed from time to time in connection with the Capital Securities, the Paying Agents), and calculation agent (the Calculation Agent, which expression includes any successor calculation agent appointed from time to time in connection with the Capital Securities). Certain provisions of these Conditions are summaries of the Agency Agreement and subject to its detailed provisions. The Capital Securities have the benefit of a deed of covenant dated 26 April 2019 (the Deed of Covenant) entered into by the Issuer. The holders of the Capital Securities (the Holders) and the holders of the related interest coupons (the Couponholders and the Coupons, respectively) and the holders of talons (Talons) for future Coupons, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, all the provisions of the Agency Agreement applicable to them. Copies of the Agency Agreement and Deed of Covenant are available for inspection by Holders during normal business hours at the registered office for the time being of the Fiscal Agent, being at the date hereof Winchester House, 1 Great Winchester Street, London EC2N 2DB, United Kingdom. Any capitalised terms not defined herein shall be given the meaning attributed in the Agency Agreement.

1. Form, Denomination and Title

(a) Form and Denomination

The Capital Securities are serially numbered and in bearer form in denominations of EUR 100,000 and integral multiples of EUR 1,000 in excess thereof up to and including EUR 199,000, each with Coupons and a Talon attached at the time of issue. No definitive Capital Securities will be issued with a denomination above EUR 199,000. Capital Securities of one denomination may not be exchanged for Capital Securities of any other denomination.

(b) Title

Title to the Capital Securities, Coupons and Talons will pass by delivery. The Issuer and any Paying Agent will (except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as otherwise required by law) deem and treat the bearer of any Capital Security, Coupon or Talon as its absolute owner for all purposes (whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or any interest in it, any writing on it, or its theft or loss) and shall not be required to obtain any proof thereof or as to the identity of such bearer.

2. Status

The Capital Securities and the Coupons constitute direct, unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer. The rights and claims of the Holders in respect of the Capital Securities and the Couponholders in respect of the Coupons, in each case against the Issuer, are subordinated as described in Condition 3(a) (Rights on a Winding-Up or Company Re-Construction).

3. Subordination and Rights on a Winding-Up

(a) Rights on a Winding-Up or Company Re-Construction

In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation (Sw. likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw. konkurs) of the Issuer (each an Issuer Winding-up), the Holders shall, in respect of their Capital Securities, have a claim (in lieu of any other amount) for the principal amount of the Capital Securities and any accrued and unpaid interest (including any Deferred Interest) thereon and such claims will rank:

- (i) pari passu without any preference among themselves and with any present or future claims in respect of obligations of the Issuer in respect of Parity Securities;
- (ii) in priority to all present or future claims in respect of (A) any Share Capital of the Issuer and (B) any other obligation of the Issuer which ranks or is expressed by its terms to rank junior to the Capital Securities or any Parity Security; and
- (iii) junior to any present or future claims in respect of (A) all unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and (B) all Subordinated Indebtedness.

In addition, the parties to the Agency Agreement may agree to modify any provision thereof, but the Issuer shall not agree, without the consent of the Holders, to any such modification unless it is of a formal, minor or technical nature, it is made to correct a manifest error or it is, in the opinion of such parties, not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders.

Any such modification and waiver shall be binding on the Holders and the Couponholders.

(c) Issuer Substitution

The Issuer, or any previously substituted company, may at any time, without the consent of the Holders or the Couponholders, substitute for itself as principal debtor under the Capital Securities and the Coupons on a subordinated basis equivalent to that referred to in Conditions 2 (Status) and 3 (Subordination and Rights on a Winding-Up) such company (the Substitute) in the manner specified in the Agency Agreement, provided that no payment in respect of the Capital Securities or the Coupons is at the relevant time overdue. - (ii) in the event that all the assets and liabilities of the Issuer are not assumed by the Substitute, the obligations of the Substitute under the Deed Poll, the Capital Securities and the Coupons shall be unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by the Issuer on the same subordinated basis as the Capital Securities under Condition 3 (Subordination and Rights on a Winding-Up) by means of the Deed Poll;

- (iii) all action, conditions and things required to be taken, fulfilled and done (including the obtaining of any necessary consents) to ensure that the Deed Poll, the Capital Securities and Coupons represent valid, legally binding and enforceable obligations of the Substitute and if applicable, of the Issuer or the previously substituted company have been taken, fulfilled and done and are in full force and effect and the Substitute and the Issuer or the previously substituted company, if applicable, shall give a representation and warranty to this effect;

- (vii) the Issuer shall have given at least 14 days' prior notice of such substitution to the Holders, stating that copies, or, pending execution, the agreed text, of all documents in relation to the substitution which are referred to above, or which might otherwise reasonably be regarded as material to Holders, will be available for inspection at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents;
- (viii) the Substitute shall have appointed the process agent appointed by the Issuer in Condition 20(c) (Appointment of Process Agent) or another person with an office in England as its agent in England to receive service of process on its behalf in relation to any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with the Capital Securities; and
- (ix) two directors of the Issuer shall have certified to the Fiscal Agent for the benefit of the Holders that, following consultation with an independent investment bank of international standing, the Issuer has concluded that such substitution will not result in the terms of the Capital Securities immediately following such substitution being materially less favourable to Holders than the terms of the Capital Securities immediately prior to such substitution.

17. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time, without the consent of the Holders or the Couponholders, create and issue further Capital Securities having the same terms and conditions as the Capital Securities in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest) so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single series with the Capital Securities (Further Capital Securities).

The Temporary Global Capital Security will be exchangeable in whole or in part for interests in a permanent global capital security (the Permanent Global Capital Security and, together with the Temporary Global Capital Security, the Global Capital Securities) not earlier than 40 days after the Issue Date upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments will be made under the Temporary Global Capital Security unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Capital Security is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, interest payments in respect of the Capital Securities while they are represented by the Temporary Global Capital Security cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

So long as the Capital Securities are represented by a Temporary Global Capital Security or a Permanent Global Capital Security and the relevant clearing system(s) so permit, the Capital Securities will be tradeable only in the minimum authorised denomination of EUR100,000 and higher integral multiples of EUR1,000, notwithstanding that no Definitive Capital Securities will be issued with a denomination above EUR 199,000.

Whenever the Permanent Global Capital Security is to be exchanged for Definitive Capital Securities, the Issuer shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Capital Securities, duly authenticated and with Coupons (and, if applicable a Talon) attached, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Capital Security to the bearer of the Permanent Global Capital Security against the surrender of the Permanent Global Capital Security to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant Exchange Event.

Business overview

General

The Group owns and manages properties and aims to be one of the leading Nordic real estate groups with focus on social infrastructure properties, residential properties and the development of residential and social infrastructure properties.

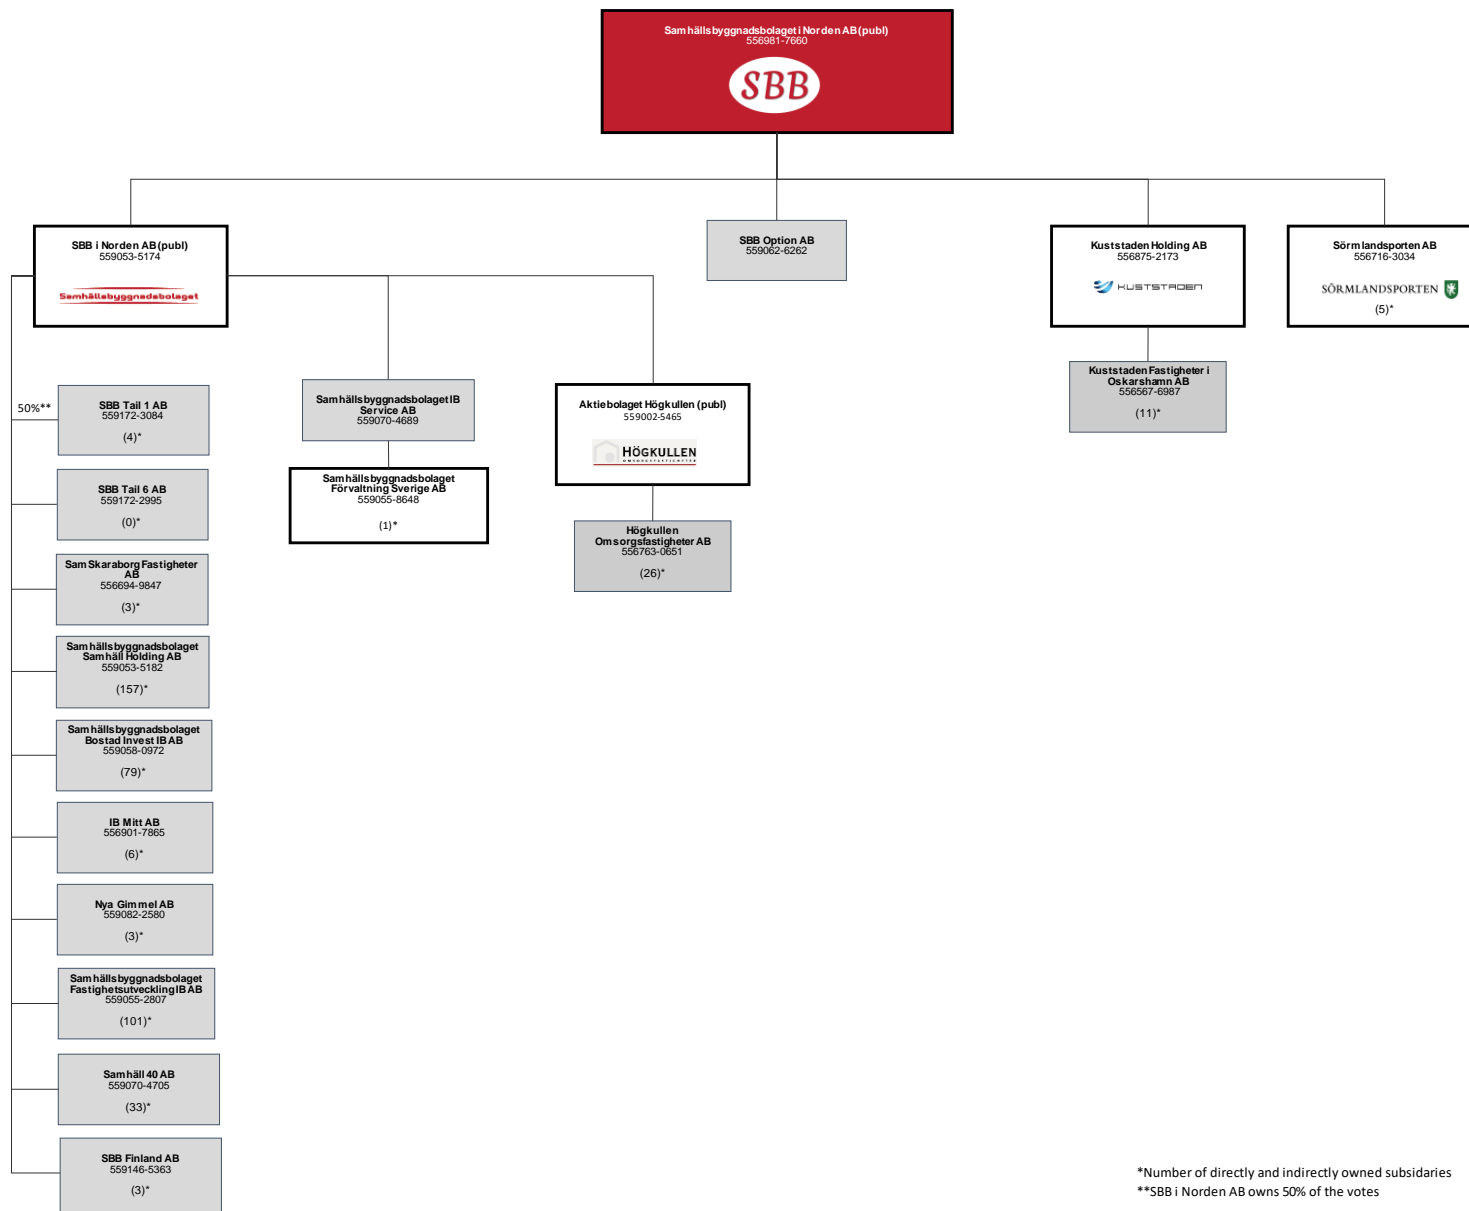

The Group owns, manages and develops residential properties in Swedish growth municipalities. The properties are generally located close to the city centre and with access to good transportation links, whether it is apartments in Kallhäll centre in Järfälla Municipality, or the city centres of for example, Oskarshamn, Nyköping and/or Nykvarn in the Stockholm region. The Group owns residential properties in approximately 30 Swedish cities, from Malmö in the south to Sundsvall in the north. However, most of the residential properties are located in the Stockholm region, Sundsvall, Oskarshamn, Karlstad, Borlänge and Motala. Social infrastructure properties are properties from which certain public social infrastructure (in sectors such as schools, health and personal care) operates. Most of the Rental Income stemming from this sector derives from public sector tenants or from tenants who run publicly funded activities on behalf of government, county councils or municipalities. The social infrastructure properties include properties used by tenants who are directly or indirectly tax funded. Tenants are engaged in activities such as education, elderly care, care of people with special needs and other care activities, municipal and state administration. Examples of tenants include municipality of Värmdö för Fågelvik preschool, municipality of Borlänge, the Norwegian Ministry of Justice and Emergency Affairs, several accommodations for elderly people and properties that accommodate people with special needs (group housing). The Group believes it is one of the Nordic region's largest players in the field of housing and long-term care facilities for the elderly and people with disabilities. The Group's aim is to offer modern social infrastructure properties in close cooperation with the main providers of care services - often municipalities and county councils, but also private care companies.

The Group's property portfolio consisted of 570 properties as at 31 December 2018 (as compared to 749 as at 31 December 2017). The properties had a total value of SEK 25.2 billion (as compared to SEK 23.0 billion as at 31 December 2017), of which residential properties constituted SEK 6.7 billion (as compared to SEK 5.9 billion as at 31 December 2017), social infrastructure properties constituted SEK 16.4 billion (as compared to SEK 14.6 billion as at 31 December 2017) and other properties (including commercial properties for example) constituted SEK 2.1 billion (as compared to SEK 2.5 billion as at 31 December 2017). The total lettable area of the Group's properties was approximately 1,330,000 square metres as at 31 December 2018 (as compared to approximately 1,366,000 square metres as at 31 December 2017), with 649,000 square metres attributable to social infrastructure properties. This yielded a Rental Income, on a 12-month rolling basis, of SEK 1,585 million (as compared to SEK 1,588 million as at 31 December 2017). Approximately 62 per cent. of the Rental Income on a 12-month rolling basis as of 31 December 2018 originates from government/government funded social infrastructure properties. Residential properties in relation to which the ability to increase rent is subject to restrictions accounts for 31 per cent and other building rights development approximately 7 per cent.

Business Strategy

The Group's business strategy is:

- to be a natural and reliable partner to the public sector in the Nordic countries by owning, managing and developing social infrastructure properties with a long-term perspective;
- to own, manage and develop residential properties throughout Sweden; and
- to work actively with the aim of creating residential building rights by being a community service builder and long-term partner to municipalities, countries and state authorities.

Management Strategy

The Issuer's management focuses on active work with value-creating development and continuous maintenance of its existing portfolio. The Issuer aims to maintain a high Surplus Ratio and performs management operations with a focus on Net Operating Income which it seeks to achieve through energy-saving investments. The Issuer develops the Group's existing portfolio and renovates the current residential properties to modern standards. The majority of the Group's property management, including the local financial and technical management of the properties, is performed in-house following the acquisition of the Issuer's property management provider, Hestia Sambygg AB in 2018.

Investment Strategy

With respect to the Group's activities in the development of building rights for residential and social infrastructure properties, the Issuer seeks to identify properties with a direct Yield of approximately 5 to 7 per cent., where it sees an opportunity for the development of building rights for mainly residential and social infrastructure properties in the short to medium term. Prior to acquisition of a property, the Issuer determines, after discussions with the local municipality, what is required in order to have a new zoning plan approved. Immediately after taking possession, work is commenced to pursue a zoning plan to create building rights. The Issuer then seeks to make early sales of these building rights prior to the final approval of the zoning plan with the intention of creating momentum for the zoning plan process in order to give municipalities confidence to ensure that when the zoning plan is approved, construction will start immediately. The Issuer aims to minimise production risks by divesting its building rights before the start of production, either to an external partner or to a joint venture where the Issuer's counterpart is an experienced project developer that takes responsibility for the production and construction risks.

Dividend Strategy and Limitation in Relation to Certain Bonds Issued

The Group has a long-term target to pay a dividend amounting to 40 per cent. of distributable earnings (including Class D share dividends and preference share dividends). The Issuer has issued a SEK 300,000,000 2.90 per cent. fixed rate bond (ISIN SE0010869123 20180212 / 20191220), a bond of up to SEK 1,500,000,000, with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 6 per cent. (ISIN SE0009805468, 20170406 / 20200406), a bond of up to SEK 1,000,000,000, with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 3.90 per cent. (ISIN SE0010414581, 20180129 / 20210129) and a bond of up to SEK 1,000,000,000, with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 3.65 per cent. (ISIN SE0010985713 20180316 / 20210517), each of which includes a provision in its terms and conditions limiting the amount of any dividend in 2018 and 2019 to 50 per cent. of the previous year's net profit and provided that the Group's Equity Ratio exceeds 30 per cent. At the end of September 2018, the Issuer announced that it had bought back bonds totalling SEK 1,205 million under a public tender offer. The Issuer bought back SEK 846 million of the bond of up to SEK 1,500,000,000, with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 6 per cent. (ISIN SE0009805468), SEK 317 million of the bond of up to SEK 1,000,000,000, with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 3.90 per cent. (ISIN SE0010414581) and SEK 42 million of the bond of up to SEK 1,000,000,000, with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 3.65 per cent. (ISIN SE0010985713). (ISIN SE0011725514). The Issuer received the proceeds from this 4 year bond loan on 3 October 2018.

For the year ending 31 December 2018, the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the Board) proposes that a dividend of SEK 0.25 per ordinary share should be distributed to the shareholders in one payment, a dividend of SEK 2.00 per class D share should be distributed to the shareholders in four payments of SEK 0.50 per class D share and a dividend of SEK 35 per preference share should be distributed to the shareholders in four payments of SEK 8.75 per preference share.

Funding Strategy

The finance department seeks to support the Group's core business by minimising the short-term and long-term cost of capital. Its task is to manage existing debt, raise new loans for investments and acquisitions, streamline cash management and limit financial risks. The work is governed by the Issuer's finance policy, which is determined and reviewed by the Board once a year. The finance policy governs reporting, follow-up and control. The Group's secured liabilities to credit institutions were reported at SEK 5,909 million at 31 December 2018 as compared with SEK 7,233 million at 31 December 2017. The Group's secured liabilities (including liabilities to credit institutions and secured bonds) amounted to SEK 8,531 million as at 31 December 2018 as compared to SEK 11,734 million as at 31 December 2017. As at 31 December 2018, the Group's loan portfolio was spread across 14 credit institutions, of which Danske Bank, Handelsbanken, SBAB, Swedbank, DNB, and several saving banks are the largest lenders.

As at 31 December 2018, of the Group's total loans, 40 per cent. carried variable interest rates and 60 per cent. were fixed rate loans. The majority of the loans have interest rate floors, which means the Issuer is not fully compensated for negative interest rates.

Property mortgages amounting to SEK 10,461 million provide security for a large part of the interest-bearing liabilities.

Bonds

Bank lenders continue to be conservative in terms of Loan to Value Ratios with most bank lenders requiring a Loan to Value Ratio of around 60 per cent. As such, in order to optimise the Issuer's capital structure, the Issuer is continuously seeking alternative funding forms, such as bonds. The Issuer has followed the trend in Sweden and in Europe, of issuing unsecured bonds instead of refinancing and borrowing new capital through the banking market.

As at 31 December 2018, the Group had outstanding bonds in the amount of SEK 6,925 million compared with SEK 6,601 million at 31 December 2017. Of the total outstanding bond volume at 31 December 2018, SEK 4,579 million were unsecured bonds.

On 24 July 2017, the Issuer issued hybrid securities of up to SEK 1,000,000,000 with a fixed interest rate of 7.5 per cent. (ISIN SE0010169508), with an initial amount issued of SEK 300,000,000. The noteholder of the hybrid securities received 35,000,000 warrants free of charge, entitling it to subscribe for ordinary shares of series B in the Issuer at a subscription price of SEK 7.40 per share. The hybrid securities were subordinated to the Issuer's outstanding senior unsecured securities and were considered as 50 per cent. equity from a rating perspective (Fitch and Standard & Poor's). These hybrid securities were repurchased and cancelled following the issue of the hybrid securities mentioned in the paragraph below.

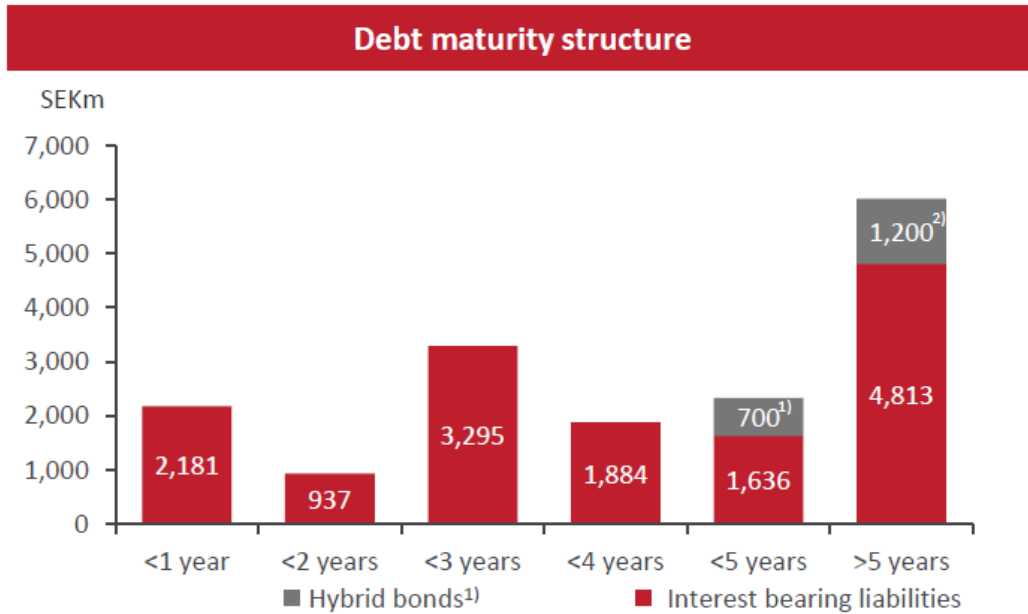

On 29 September 2017, the Issuer issued perpetual callable capital securities of up to SEK 1,000,000,000 with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 7.0 per cent. (ISIN SE0010414599). As of the date of this Prospectus, capital securities of an amount equal to the total amount of SEK 1,000,000,000 have been issued. These capital securities have a similar structure to the repurchased hybrid securities mentioned in the paragraph above. They are subordinated to the Issuer's outstanding senior unsecured securities and are considered as 50 per cent. equity from a rating perspective (Fitch and Standard & Poor's). The capital securities are listed on the corporate bond list of Nasdaq Stockholm under symbol SAMN 001.

On 13 September 2018, the Issuer issued subordinated perpetual floating rate callable capital securities of up to SEK 1,500,000,000 with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 6.35 (ISIN SE0011642776). As of the date of this Prospectus, capital securities of an amount equal to the total amount of SEK 1,200,000,000 have been issued. The capital securities have a similar structure to the outstanding capital securities with ISIN SE0010414599. They are subordinated to the Issuer's outstanding senior unsecured securities and are considered as 50 per cent. equity from a rating perspective (Fitch and Standard & Poor's). The capital securities have been listed on the corporate bond list of Nasdaq Stockholm. On 10 October 2018, the Issuer tapped the hybrid bond with ISIN SE0011642776 with a framework amount of SEK 1.5 billion with SEK 100 million. The issue price amounted to 101.35 per cent., corresponding to a margin of 606 basis points. Subsequently, another SEK 100 million was issued at an issue price of 101.8 per cent., corresponding to a margin of 597 basis points.

Description of Alternative Performance Measures

This section provides further information relating to alternative performance measures (APMs) for the purposes of the guidelines (the Guidelines) published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA). Certain of the financial measures included in the "Description of the Group" above can be characterised as APMs and set out below is a summary of the APM used, the definition, bases of calculation and reconciliation of such APMs and the rationale for their inclusion.

The Issuer believes that the presentation of these APMs is helpful to investors because these and other similar measures are used by certain investors as supplemental measures of performance and liquidity. However, these measures are not measures of financial performance under IFRS and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for operating profit, cash flow from operating activities or other financial measures of the Group's results of operations or liquidity computed in accordance with IFRS. Other companies, including those in the Group's industry, may calculate these measures differently from the Group. As all companies do not calculate such measures in the same manner, the presentation of these measures pertaining to the Group may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies.

Covenants and Risk

The Issuer's financial risk exposure and positions can be valued by the use of, among other measures, the Equity Ratio and a gearing ratio. Credit agreements with banks and credit institutions often include covenants measuring the Group's Equity Ratio, interest coverage and leverage.

Pursuant to the current published financial policy of the Group, the Board has stipulated that: (i) the Group's Equity Ratio target is to maintain a ratio of at least 35 per cent. (as compared with the covenant level of 25 per cent. which is often included in the Issuer's bank financing), (ii) the Group's interest coverage ratio target is to maintain a ratio of at least 2.5 (as compared with the covenant level of 1.5 to 1.7 which is often included in the Issuer's bank financing) and (iii) the Group's Loan to Value Ratio target is to maintain a Loan to Value Ratio of less than 50 per cent.

Property Portfolio

As at 31 December 2018, the Issuer held 570 registered properties in 131 municipalities, as compared with 749 registered properties in 128 municipalities as at 31 December 2017. 58 per cent, of these properties are located in Greater Stockholm, Greater Gothenburg, Greater Malmö, Oslo, Helsinki and Tampere. The total real estate value amounted to SEK 25.243 million (SEK 23,001 million as at 31 December 2017), the total lettable area was 1,330 thousand square metres (1,366 thousand square metres as at 31 December 2017) and the Rental Value was SEK 1,680 million (SEK 1,339 million as at 31 December 2017). The Occupancy Rate as at 31 December 2018 was 96 per cent. (97 per cent. as at 31 December 2017). At the same time, the average Yield for the Issuer's real estate portfolio, excluding land and building rights, was 4.7 per cent. As at 31 December 2017, the Yield for the Issuer's real estate portfolio was 4.8 per cent.

As at 31 December 2018, social infrastructure properties in Norway and Finland accounted for 30 per cent. and 1 per cent. respectively of the value of the Group's property portfolio. Approximately 61 per cent. of the value of the Group's property portfolio consisted of residential and social infrastructure properties in Sweden. In addition, the Issuer develops building rights for residential and social infrastructure properties in Sweden. The remaining 8 per cent. were properties in Sweden, where the Issuer actively conducts property development work to develop building rights for residential and social infrastructure.

Regions

Overview of the Swedish, Finnish and Norwegian markets for housing and properties for public use

Sweden

Property yields continue to offer a spread over the central bank base rate in Sweden, given the continuing low interest rate environment. Sweden's real GDP is expected to grow somewhat faster than the 28 European Union Member States as a whole (the EU28) – expected Swedish real GDP growth is 2.7 per cent. and 2.1 per cent. for 2018 and 2019 respectively compared to 2.3 per cent. and 2.0 per cent. respectively for the EU28.¹ Sweden's unemployment rate is expected to fall from 6.6 per cent. in 2017 to 6.4 per cent. in 2018.² Inflation in Sweden as per September 2017 to September 2018 is 2.3 per cent. and the repo rate has been kept at -0.50 per cent. since February 2016.³ This economic environment has created a favourable investment climate in the Swedish property market and has contributed to a rise in property prices.

The rapidly growing population combined with urbanisation and the current rate of housing construction creates an imbalance between demand and supply, which has resulted in a shortage of housing in many cities.

Demand for community services, and therefore demand for properties for public use, is expected to increase as a consequence of the demographic trends of an ageing and increasing population. Within community services, private sector alternatives are steadily increasing, with the consequence that the construction of new properties for private sector alternatives is increasingly being carried out by parties other than the Government, municipalities or county councils. It is therefore likely that Sweden's stock of privately-owned properties for public use will continue to grow in the long-term. In addition, there is a substantial need for further development of school premises and nursing homes in Sweden and a strong trend towards urbanisation. The rental market for properties for public use is characterised by long leases, creditworthy tenants and low volatility as regards to rent levels and limited risk of vacancy.

Residential property rent levels are subject to regulatory restrictions in Sweden, which limits the ability of the Issuer to increase the rent payable by tenants. Rents in Sweden are negotiated annually between the landlord and the Swedish Union of Tenants in accordance with the system of utility value (Bruksvärdessystemet), which is the form of rent control in Sweden. This system implies that rent levels should be proportionate to the quality and standard of the property in question and can only be increased to a level that is in line with the rent that is charged on other comparable residential units. Typically the annual rent increase is in line with inflation or up to 1 per cent. in excess thereof.

Rent control, which has been in place since the 1940s, has resulted in rent levels not being set at the market level. Although rent control currently leaves rent levels below where they could be, it ensures that vacancies are very low as demand exceeds supply. As a result, the Issuer considers its income stream to have a high level of predictability. In more attractive residential areas rent control has depressed the value of properties with rental apartments compared to ownership apartments.

Norway

In the first half of 2018, mainland output growth (which excludes oil and gas production) in Norway was robust (with mainland GDP expected to rise to 2.0 per cent. in 2018 compared to 1.9 per cent. in 2017), boosted by an increase in oil prices, monetary and fiscal policy support and currency depreciation. In addition, the unemployment rate continued to decline (to an expected 3.7 per cent. in 2018 compared with 4.2 per cent. in 2017), consumer-price inflation remained low and the negotiated benchmark wage increase for 2018 was moderate, at 2.8 per cent.

Housing construction has generally slowed down, and output growth is expected to be moderate in 2019 (with mainland GDP forecast to drop slightly to 2.1 per cent. in 2019). The housing-market slowdown is the result of macro-prudential measures curtailing housing credit growth, and the adjustment of banks' safety margins via the counter-cyclical capital buffer.

In response to strong economic growth in 2018, the government changed its fiscal and monetary policies to adopt a more neutral stance in its 2018 budget. In addition, in March 2018, Norges Bank reduced its inflation target from 2.5 per cent. to 2 per cent. while announcing an increase of its policy rate in the autumn of 2018 to limit price and wage inflation.⁴ In September 2018, Monetary Policy Report implied two similar rate hikes in 2019 and an additional two in 2020.⁵

Finland

In 2017, Finland's economy grew by 3.3 per cent., which is faster than the EU28 area average. This growth was supported by net exports, higher investment and robust private consumption. GDP growth is forecast to reduce slightly in 2018, reaching 2.8 per cent., with exports, private consumption and investment growth projected to expand further as a result of the increase in household disposable income, the improved situation in the labour market and the historically high level of consumer and business confidence. In 2019, GDP growth is forecast at 2.0 per cent. due to an expected slowdown in private consumption.

Employment creation has grown throughout 2017 and 2018, as Finland's economic expansion continues. However, unemployment rates are set to fall slowly and remain high in 2018 and 2019 while employment growth will be restrained by the ongoing contraction in the working-age population, labour market mismatch problems and high structural unemployment.⁶ Inflation is forecast to pick up gradually to reach 1.4 per cent. in 2018 and 1.6 per cent. in 2019.⁷

As is the case with many Nordic countries, one of the long-term threats to future growth in Finland is its aging population. According to Statistics Finland the percentage of the Finnish population over the age of 65 was 20.5 per cent. – they expect this to rise to 24.2 per cent. by 2025.⁸ Given the ageing population, the demand for community services and by extension properties for public use, is on the rise. Healthcare properties are a diversified market segment consisting of assisted living facilities and nursing homes for different target groups (e.g. elderly people and mental patients as well as disabled people), children's day care facilities, medical facilities and even hospital properties. In the Finnish context, most of these facilities have traditionally been owned by municipalities and other public-sector organisations, which have also provided social services and have operated the facilities.⁹

The Finnish real estate investment market has been active in recent years with interest from foreign investors increasing the volume of sales, size of the market and reducing required yields. The Finnish real estate market is particularly large in proportion to the size of its economy (in 2017, it represented 28 per cent. of Finland's GDP). In the housing market, construction is expected to grow in 2018 and 2019. In the commercial property market, new construction of retail and office premises rose sharply in 2017 but is expected to slow down slightly in 2018. In addition, the market is polarised (with growth mainly taking place in Helsinki) and less attractive areas suffer from underutilisation.¹⁰

Average Lease Term for Social Infrastructure Properties

The lease agreements for social infrastructure properties are characterised by long maturities and low relocations. As set out in the graph below, as at 31 December 2018, the Issuer's weighted average unexpired lease term was 7 years. This was unchanged as compared to 31 December 2017.

The lease agreements for residential properties typically have a three-month notice period in favour of the tenants. By contrast, it is difficult for property owners to give notice on a residential lease meaning tenants benefit from security of tenure.

As at 31 December 2018, the Group's occupancy rate was 96.2 per cent, which is substantially unchanged as compared to 31 December 2017 (96.8 per cent.).

Property Acquisitions

During the year ending 31 December 2018, there was a slowdown in acquisitions with a total of 98 properties acquired with a total lettable area of 211,000 square metres (compared to 400 properties acquired with a total lettable area of 741,000 square metres during the twelve months ending 31 December 2017). The largest investment was Kadetten 29 with a lettable area of 10,100 square metres. The slowdown in acquisitions described above can be explained by the focus of the Issuer on consolidating its business.

On 16 August 2018, the Issuer signed a letter of intent to invest in excess of SEK 1 billion in Skellefteå Cultural Centre signing a 50 year lease with Skellefteå Municipality.

On 20 December 2018, the Issuer signed an agreement with M2 Asset Management AB to acquire 1,363 apartments allocated to 50 properties in Södertälje, Enköping, Sigtuna, Tierp, Tranås, Vaggeryd, Söderhamn and Nässjö for a value of SEK 1,305 million.

Valuation model

The Issuer reports investment properties at fair value. Every quarter, all properties are valued. According to the valuation policy, external valuers evaluate the entire portfolio every six months and the remaining quarters are valued internally. The value of the property portfolio at 31 December 2018, was based on external valuations made by Newsec, Savills and JLL. The value of the property portfolio at 31 December 2017 was based on external valuations made by Newsec, JLL, Forum and Savills. The valuations are based on an analysis of future cash flows for each property, taking into account current lease terms, market conditions, rental levels, operating, maintenance and administration costs as well as investment needs. The rate of return applied for the valuations range from 2.35 per cent. to 8.5 per cent. as of 31 December 2018. The value of the portfolio as at 31 December 2018 includes approximately SEK 1,331 million for building rights, which were valued using the local rate method, which means that the valuation is based on comparisons of prices for similar building rights. Fair value has thus been assessed in accordance with IFRS 13 level 3.

Renovation

A significant part of the Issuer's residential portfolio was built between the years 1960 and 1975 and requires some refurbishment to meet current and future tenant requirements for quality and comfort, as well as to meet current technical standards. This is achieved by successive renovations coordinated with end of lease vacancy periods of the apartments. The Issuer targets value-creating refurbishment to a new modern standard in order to generate increased Rental Income and lower operating cost through energy saving measures. Prior to renovation, an assessment is made as to whether additional value-creating changes can be made. For example, large rooms of apartments are reconfigured to create extra rooms so that the property can be better utilised in the future. The Issuer aims to renovate to an attractive standard that appeals to both new and existing tenants. Once renovations are planned, the Issuer strives to reach agreement with the tenant association on a new rent level that will recognise the value added by the renovation. The Issuer has already reached agreement for approximately 70 per cent. of its properties that it intends to renovate, and negotiations are in progress in relation to the remainder. Since autumn 2017, the Issuer has renovated approximately 400 apartments for a total value of approximately SEK 160 million.

Development Projects

The Issuer has a property development team headed by Deputy CEO Krister Karlsson. The Issuer property development team aims to convert certain of the Group's properties into flexible and effective building rights (that permit tenancy housing, tenant-owned apartments as well as social infrastructure buildings). The Issuer has developed building rights that suit a wide range of investors such as co-operatives, listed companies and municipal housing companies. The Issuer also has extensive experience in initiating and executing sales early in the planning process.

The Issuer had approximately 50 ongoing development projects in various planning phases with a total of approximately 900,000 square metres gross floor area (GFA) as at 31 December 2018. The planning process consists of four phases: project idea and planning application (Phase 1), planning notification (Phase 2), procedure before approval of the zoning plan (Phase 3) and approval of the zoning plan (Phase 4). The Issuer takes a very limited production risk and usually sells the building rights when the zoning plan is approved.

During 2018, SBB's property development organisation had properties containing approximately 270,000 square metres GFA building rights amounting to a value of approximately SEK 780 million.

Joint Ventures

As at 31 December 2018, the Issuer had participations in associated companies and joint ventures amounting to SEK 213 million and receivables from associated companies and joint ventures amounted to SEK 1,574 million.

The largest joint venture by reported value was HusBacc Utv Hold AB with a reported value of SEK 157 million. The Issuer has a 50 per cent. equity stake in the HusBacc Utv Hold AB joint venture (with HSB Förening) and eleven other joint ventures.

In 2018, the Issuer sold two student housing properties to the newly established company Studentbostäder i Sverige AB (Studentbostäder), which is owned jointly with Offentliga Hus (publ) and Amasten AB (publ). The Issuer's holding in Studentbostäder is 23.10 per cent. Studentbostäder's property portfolio consists of 21 properties with a value of SEK 900 million.

During the quarter ended 31 December 2018, the Issuer formed a joint venture together with Property AD AB. The company has 39 properties at an underlying property value of SEK 1,153 million. The properties are centrally located in the municipalities of Oskarshamn, Västervik, Nyköping, Karlskrona, Hudiksvall, Karlstad, Älvdalen, Malung-Sälén, Motala, Hedemora, Tomelilla, Hörby, Ludvika, Skövde, Ovanåker, Helsingborg, Flen, Norrköping, Torsby, Hagfors and Svalöv. The total lettable area comprises 108,248 square metres with an operating net profit of approximately SEK 59 million during the quarter ended 31 December 2018. The properties include both residential and office buildings. The joint venture company focus will be on transactions and leasing and letting.

During the quarter ended 31 December 2018, the Issuer also sold 1,600 apartments for a value of SEK 1,375 million to a joint venture co-owned with KlaraBo Förvaltning AB. The properties are located in the municipalities of Bollnäs, Borlänge, Ludvika, Malmö, Smedjebacken and Sundsvall.

Among the associated companies and joint ventures there are both companies that own investment properties and companies that will develop building rights.

Recent Developments

On 28 December 2018 the Issuer announced the issue of 4,064,516 shares of class D. These shares were registered on 14 January 2019. On 28 March 2019, the Issuer announced the issue of 9,193,549 shares of class D and on 3 April 2019, the Issuer announced the issue of a further 19,422,377 shares of class D. The use of the proceeds of the new issuances are to fund the repurchase of the Group's secured debt, to raise additional working capital, and to actively manage the portfolio of assets and linked liabilities. As of the date of this Prospectus the Issuer has issued 74,306,832 shares of class D, of which 11,218,513 are pending registration with the Swedish Companies Registration Office.

The Issuer actively looks at opportunities for the purchase of properties that fit with the Issuer's investment strategy. The Issuer may also divest non-core assets where such divestments fit the Issuer's investment strategy and active portfolio, asset and liability management.

On 16 April 2019, the Issuer announced that it had entered into an agreement for the sale of DNB's head office in central Oslo to DNB Liv at a price of SEK 4,897 million (NOK 4,487.5 million). Closing of the transaction is scheduled to take place on 30 April 2019. The Issuer intends to use the proceeds of the sale, together with the proceeds of the Capital Securities, for the redemption of existing secured indebtedness and new investments in social infrastructure (including elderly care homes, group housing and schools) in the Nordics and rent regulated residentials in Sweden.

OWNERSHIP STRUCTURE OF THE ISSUER

The Board, Management and Auditors

The Board consists of seven (7) members. The registered office of each member of the Board and management is at the Issuer's address Strandvägen 3, SE-114 51 Stockholm, telephone +46 70 674 44 42. Ilija Batljan is, directly and indirectly, the largest shareholder in the Issuer, which could entail a potential conflict of interest. The Issuer manages potential conflicts of interests by adhering to corporate governance rules as described in the Swedish Corporate Governance Code, which amongst other things includes a requirement to have a formal and openly stated process for deciding on remuneration of members of the Board and the executive management. In addition, the Issuer follows internal governance procedures in order to avoid conflicts of interest as far possible. There are no other conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest between the private interests of members of the Board or the management and the Issuer's interests.

Auditors

The auditors are responsible for the audit of the Issuer's financial accounts and accounting, as well as the Board and executive management's conduct and management. At the annual general meeting of the Issuer held on 27 April 2018 (the AGM), the registered accounting firm Ernst & Young AB was elected auditor for the period until the Annual General Meeting in 2019. The Authorised Public Accountant, Ingemar Rindstig, has been appointed as the Chief Auditor. The Chief Auditor's task is to review the Issuer's and the Group's annual accounts and bookkeeping, as well as the Board and CEO's management of the Issuer and the Group.

The Chief Auditor shall report to the Audit Committee on significant errors in the field of accounting and in the event of suspicions of irregularities. The Chief Auditor must report to the Board at least one to two times a year, with their observations following the audit of the Issuer and its assessment of the Issuer's internal control.

The Chief Auditor also participates at the AGM and describes the audit work and the observations made. In addition to the audit assignment, Ernst & Young has been hired for additional services in 2017, mainly tax and accounting issues, but also share issuances.

Board Committees

The Board currently has two committees: an Audit Committee and a Remuneration Committee. The members of each committee are appointed for one year at the statutory Board meeting. The work and the committee's decision-making rights are governed by the annual committee instructions.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring the Issuer's financial reporting and the effectiveness of the Issuer's internal control and risk management. The Audit Committee is also informed of the annual report and consolidated accounts. The Audit Committee reviews and monitors the Chief Auditor's independence and integrity, and in particular follows up if the Chief Auditor provides the Issuer with any other services. The Audit Committee also supports proposals for the AGM's decision on auditor's election.

According to the Code, the Audit Committee shall consist of at least three members, of which the majority shall be independent in relation to the Issuer and Group management and at least one independent in relation to the Issuer's majority shareholders. The Audit Committee currently consists of the entire Board and Audit Committee meetings remain an integral part of the Board's work.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee prepares questions regarding remuneration principles of the CEO and other senior executives, and in accordance with remuneration principles, it prepares an individual remuneration proposal for the CEO for decision by the Board.

These principles include: inter alia, the ratio between fixed and possible variable remuneration, the relationship between performance and remuneration, the main conditions for any bonus and incentive programmes, the main conditions for non-monetary benefits, retirement, termination and severance pay. The CEO also applies to the Board to determine remuneration and other terms of employment. However, decisions on share-related incentive programmes for Group management are addressed at the AGM. The Remuneration Committee further assists the Board in monitoring the Issuer's compliance with the law, stock exchange rules and the code of provisions regarding disclosure of any information that has been given to the CEO and other senior executives. The Remuneration Committee also has to follow and evaluate any ongoing and completed programmes for variable remuneration and the application of guidelines for the CEO and other senior executives, the latter of which is decided at the AGM, in addition to applicable remuneration structures and levels. The Remuneration Committee consists of Board members Eva Swartz Grimaldi (Chairman) and Lennart Schuss, who are considered independent in relation to the Issuer and Group management.

Internal Control of Reporting and Risk Management

The Issuer's internal control of financial reporting is designed to manage risks and ensure high reliability in the processes of preparing financial statements and to ensure compliance with applicable accounting requirements and other requirements for the Issuer as a listed company. The Board is responsible for the internal control of the Issuer regarding financial reporting. The Issuer follows the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commissions (COSO) framework to evaluate an enterprise's internal control over the financial reporting, Internal Control - Integrated Framework, which consists of the following five components: control environment, risk assessment, control activities, information and communication as well as follow-up.

Control Environment

The distribution and delegation of responsibility for internal control functions have been documented and communicated to the Board and the Issuer under the following documents:

- The Board of Directors Rules of Procedure
- Instructions to the CEO
- Delegation Scheme
- Attestation Rules
- Other internal control documents (for example, the Financial Policy and Business Policies)

All internal control documents are regularly updated following changes, for example, in legislation, accounting standards or listing requirements, and when otherwise needed.

Risk Assessment

In accordance with the rules of procedure, the Board and the Audit Committee review the Issuer's internal controls once a year. Risks are identified and measures are taken to reduce these risks. The Chief Auditor is invited to detail its report on internal control at a Board meeting and to the Audit Committee. The significant risks the Issuer has previously identified are errors in accounting and valuation of the properties, credit risks, refinancing risks, interest rate risks, taxes and VAT, as well as the risk of fraud, loss or misappropriation of assets.

Control Activities

The Issuer has a risk management policy in place. The Issuer's financial system is structured so that the entering into agreements and the payment of invoices must follow the decision-making, corporate and attestation rights specified in the internal control documents. This control structure seeks to counteract and prevent the risks identified by the Issuer. In addition to these control structures, a number of control activities are undertaken to further detect and correct errors and discrepancies. Such control activities consist of follow-up at various levels of the organisation, such as: reconciliation of the Board resolutions, review and comparison of profit and loss accounts, account reconciliation and approval and accounting of business transactions within the finance department.

Material Contracts

Acquisition and transfer agreements

Since the Issuer's establishment, a significant number of acquisitions and transfers, mainly of property owned companies and real estates, have been made by the Group. Amongst others, the Issuer has acquired SBB i Norden (through a reverse take-over), Kuststaden Holding AB and Sörmlandsporten AB. SBB i Norden has acquired Aktiebolaget Högkullen (publ) and Gimmel Fastigheter AB.

In acquisition agreements, the seller regularly provides certain fixed-term guarantees regarding the property sold and the acquired company. In cases where a company within the Group sells properties and companies, warranty claims may be brought by the buyer regarding any damage that has arisen. Historically, no material warranty claims have been brought against the Group and no claims under any guarantees are currently outstanding. Registered ownership (Sw. lagfart) has been received for all properties acquired by the Group.

Commercial leases

As at 31 December 2018, the Group has approximately 14,000 contracted leases, mainly relating to residential properties, social infrastructure properties and commercial premises in lower floors and development properties in the form of office/industrial/warehouse. The Group's lease agreements are typically based on the Swedish Property Federation's (Sw. Fastighetsägarna) standard form agreement and are subject to annual rent adjustments that are linked to adjustments to the consumer price index. The agreements typically contain an appendix with specific provisions for the relevant lease and usually a term of three to five years with a typical notice period of nine months.

The lease with the Group's largest rental customer in terms of Rental Income, DNB Bank ASA (DNB), corresponds to approximately 12.1 per cent. of the Group's Rental Income. Under the lease agreement with DNB, a fixed base rent is issued and the rent is subject to annual indexation in accordance with the Norwegian consumer price index. No part of the rented premises may be terminated during the term of the agreement. The remaining term of the lease agreement with DNB is approximately nine years. In addition, DNB is entitled to an extension of the lease agreement over a total of ten years (divided into two prolongations every five years) on market terms.

Except for the agreements mentioned above the Issuer is not a party to any material agreements outside of the ordinary course of business which could result in an entity within the Group having a right or an obligation that could materially affect the Issuer's ability to meet its obligations under the Capital Securities.

Employees

As at 31 December 2018, the Issuer had 128 employees as compared with 37 as at 31 December 2017. The knowledge, experience and commitment of the Issuer's employees are important for the Group's future development.

Employee benefits include salaries, paid leave, paid sick leave, and other benefits as well as pensions. The Group has only defined contribution pension plans. Defined contribution plans are reported as costs in the period in which premiums paid are attributable.

Sustainability

The Issuer defines sustainable development as taking responsibility for the long term economic, environmental and social results of business practice and operations. The Issuer's Code of Conduct and Sustainability Policy are based on its values. The Issuer must comply with applicable laws and regulations, and work in the long-term in accordance with principles that guarantee a high standard of morals and ethics both internally and externally. The Issuer also supports the UN Global Compact principles.

The Issuer's sustainability strategy stems from its values of long-term approach, development-oriented focus and reliability. Sustainability is a concept that includes all of the work undertaken by the Issuer. The Issuer's sustainability work is primarily governed by internal processes and external regulations. This minimises risks while contributing to a sustainable society and ensures long-term value creation. The Board annually decides on the Code of Conduct and the Sustainability Policy as well as goals for sustainability work. Since its inception, the Issuer's property development work has focused on minimising environmental impact and CO² emissions including working with the municipality of Nyköping to develop the area around the city's central station. Building centrally with good access to public transportation is a very important aspect from a sustainability perspective. By offering high-quality residential areas with access to schools, nursing homes and good commuting opportunities, the Issuer minimises the strain on the environment.

Green Bond Framework

On 25 June 2018, the Issuer set up a Green Bond Framework in order to be able to issue green bonds in the future. The Green Bond Framework is in line with the Green Bond Principles, which have been developed by the International Capital Markets Association (ICMA). The Issuer commissioned and received an independent valuation by Cicero (Centre for International Climate Research, Oslo) of the Green Bond Framework and associated steering documents and routines for assessing the environmental impact of the projects. Following their assessment of project type, steering document goals and reporting standards, the Issuer's Green Bond Framework received a 'Medium Green' assessment by Cicero.

On 14 February 2019, the Issuer issued senior unsecured floating rate green notes up to a maximum of SEK 2,000,000,000 with an interest rate of STIBOR 3m plus 3.30 per cent. (with ISIN SE0012256741). As of the date of this Prospectus, notes of an amount of SEK 500,000,000 of the total amount have been issued. The notes are listed on the sustainable bond market of Nasdaq Stockholm. These notes were considered to align with the Green Bond Principles and given a score of 64/E2 by S&P Global Rating (S&P) in a green evaluation report published on 4 February 2018. S&P's evaluation was based on transparency, governance, mitigation and/or adaptation considerations. In particular, S&P emphasised that the Issuer's Green Bond Framework contains positive features, including a third-party verification of the environmental impact of the transaction.

Environment

Property management and property development have an environmental impact. The Swedish Environmental Code (1998:808) states that anyone who has carried out an activity that contributed to pollution is also responsible for remedying it. If the responsible person cannot carry out or pay for the remediation of the contaminated property, the person who acquired the property is responsible for remediation as long as the buyer knew or should have known at the time of acquisition. This means that claims under certain conditions may be directed against the Group for land remediation or for remedying actual or suspected contamination of land, water areas or groundwater in order to reinstate the property to the requirements of the Swedish Environmental Code.

As part of the acquisition process, a thorough analysis of possible environmental risks is made prior to each acquisition. The Issuer does not conduct any business that requires special environmental permits, but property management and property development can cause environmental impact. At present, the Issuer is not aware of any significant environmental claims that may be directed against it.

The Issuer's environmental work is integrated into the organisation and property portfolio. The work is conducted continuously and targeted to achieve continuous improvements. Sustainability issues are integral to business plans established for each region within the Issuer. Some measures require investment and are therefore found in the Issuer's maintenance plans. The measures included are to reduce energy use in the Group's properties, to streamline transportation to and from properties, to make smarter purchases to ensure the use of environmentally-friendly and energy-efficient materials for repairs and maintenance and to work proactively with regular environmental issues. Current legislation and environmental requirements, together with the Issuer's Code of Conduct and Sustainability Policy, form the basis of the work involving both employees and tenants as suppliers and contractors.

Social Engagement

The Issuer acts as a business, employer and community participant in a large number of locations in Sweden. The Issuer prioritises its social sustainability work with young people living in the Group's residential areas and the Issuer's employees. It is through the employees' involvement, development and competence that the corporate culture is created. All employees are offered a developmental and responsible work where the balance between work and privacy is also important. The Group contributes to the Mentor Sverige programme.

TAXATION

Certain Swedish tax considerations

The following is a general description of certain Swedish tax consequences relating to the acquisition, ownership and disposal of Capital Securities (i.e. perpetual securities in respect of which there is no fixed redemption date). The summary is based on Swedish tax legislation currently in effect and is only intended to provide general information. Consequently, the summary is not exhaustive and does not address all potential aspects of Swedish taxation that may be relevant for a prospective purchaser of Capital Securities and the summary is neither intended nor should be construed as legal or tax advice. The summary does for example not cover (i) Capital Securities held as current assets in a business operation, (ii) Capital Securities held via a capital insurance policy (Sw. kapitalförsäkring), (iii) Capital Securities held on an investment savings account (Sw. investeringssparkonto), or (iv) taxation of foreign exchange gains and losses in connection with an investment in the Capital Securities. Special tax rules apply to certain categories of taxpayers, such as investment companies and insurance companies. These rules are not described in this summary.

Also, the summary does not cover the rules on reporting obligations for, among others, payers of interest.

Since the tax treatment of each Holder depends on the Holder's particular circumstances, each prospective purchaser of Capital Securities should consult a tax adviser regarding the specific tax consequences that may arise in the individual case, including the applicability and effect of foreign tax rules and tax treaties.

Resident Holders of Capital Securities

As used herein, a resident Holder means a Holder of Capital Securities who is (a) an individual who is a resident in Sweden for tax purposes, or (b) an entity organised under the laws of Sweden or which is otherwise resident in Sweden for tax purposes.

Generally, for Swedish companies and individuals (and estates of deceased individuals) that are resident Holders of Capital Securities, all capital income (for example income that is considered as interest for Swedish tax purposes and capital gains on Capital Securities) will be taxable. For companies the tax rate is currently 21.4 per cent and for individuals the tax rate is 30 per cent.

Swedish preliminary tax may be withheld at a rate of 30 per cent in relation to payments of amounts on the Capital Securities that are considered as interest for Swedish tax purposes to resident Holders that are individuals (or estates of deceased individuals). Otherwise, no Swedish preliminary tax should be withheld in relation to payments on the Capital Securities.

Non-resident Holders of Capital Securities

As used herein, a non-resident Holder means a Holder of Capital Securities who is (a) an individual who is not resident in Sweden for tax purposes and who has no connection to Sweden other than the investment in the Capital Securities, or (b) an entity not organised under the laws of Sweden and which is not otherwise resident in Sweden for tax purposes.

Payments of principal, premium or interest in respect of the Capital Securities to a non-resident Holder of Capital Securities should not be subject to Swedish income tax provided that such Holder does not have a permanent establishment in Sweden to which the Capital Securities are effectively connected. Also, no Swedish withholding tax should be levied on payments of principal, premium or interest in respect of the Capital Securities to a non-resident Holder of Capital Securities.

The Holders may, however, be subject to tax in the country where they are resident for tax purposes.

The proposed financial transactions tax (FTT)

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the Commission's Proposal) for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the participating Member States). However, Estonia has since stated that it shall not participate.

The Commission's Proposal has a very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in the Capital Securities (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Capital Securities should, however, be exempt.

Under the Commission's Proposal, the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the Capital Securities where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, established in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EEA member states may decide to participate and certain of the participating Member States may decide to withdraw.

Prospective holders of the Capital Securities are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Danske Bank A/S, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, and Nordea Bank Abp (together, the Joint Bookrunners) have, pursuant to a Subscription Agreement (the Subscription Agreement) dated 24 April 2019, jointly and severally agreed to subscribe or procure subscribers for the Capital Securities at the issue price of 98.886 per cent. of the principal amount of Capital Securities. The Issuer has agreed to pay the Joint Bookrunners a combined management and underwriting commission, will reimburse the Joint Bookrunners in respect of certain of their expenses, and has also agreed to indemnify the Joint Bookrunners against certain liabilities, incurred in connection with the issue of the Capital Securities. The Subscription Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances prior to payment of the Issuer.

United States

The Capital Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Capital Securities are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. tax regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and regulations thereunder.

Each Joint Bookrunner has represented and agreed that, except as permitted by the Subscription Agreement, it will not offer, sell or deliver the Capital Securities (a) as part of their distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the Closing Date within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons and that it will have sent to each dealer to which it sells any Capital Securities during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Capital Securities within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Joint Bookrunners transacting with the Issuer

In the ordinary course of their business activities the Joint Bookrunners and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or Issuer's affiliates. The Joint Bookrunners or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Joint Bookrunners and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Capital Securities. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Capital Securities. The Joint Bookrunners and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Yield

On the basis of the issue price of the Capital Securities of 98.886 per cent. of their principal amount, the yield on the Capital Securities for the period until the First Reset Date is 4.875 per cent. on an annual basis.

The yield is calculated on the Closing Date on the basis of the issue price of the Capital Securities. It is not an indication of future yield.

Interests of natural and legal persons involved in the issue of the Capital Securities

Save for the commissions described under Subscription and Sale, so far as the Issuer is aware, no person involved in the issue of the Capital Securities has an interest material to the offer.
