Erik Lemaitre, EVP Business Development, to leave SSM

Erik Lemaitre, EVP Business Development and member of SSM's Executive Management Team, has announced that he will leave SSM to start a position at another company.

- Together with his team, Erik has contributed to creating the competitive and well-positioned portfolio of building rights that SSM has today. I've had the pleasure of getting to know Erik both during my time at NCC and my first six months here at SSM where Erik has added invaluable expertise and experience in many commercial contexts and transactions. I wish Erik all the best in his new position, says Mattias Lundgren, President & CEO of SSM.

Erik will leave SSM during the second quarter 2020.
