Daniel Tellberg strengthens group management team as Finance Director of SBB

Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB (publ) ("SBB") strengthens its group management by appointing Daniel Tellberg as Finance Director. Daniel Tellberg currently holds the position of interim Head of Group Accounting and will take on his new role from the 1st of September. Daniel Tellberg will gradually take over responsibilities from the departing CFO Eva-Lotta Stridh. With this change, the current recruitment process for a new CFO ends.

"With his experience, Daniel has been very valuable in his current role and it is therefore pleasing that he now strengthens the management team as Finance Director. Daniel is a welcome addition in the work of building the future SBB." says Leiv Synnes, CEO of SBB.

"During the year I have gotten to know SBB and the forward-leaning attitude at the company. I therefore look forward to being part of the continued journey and in this new role contribute to equip SBB for the future." says Daniel Tellberg, incoming Finance Director at SBB.

Daniel Tellberg has held the role of interim Head of Group Accounting at SBB since the turn of the year. Before taking up his current role at SBB, he was interim Head of Group Accounting at Magnolia Bostad. He has a background as a controller at several listed companies such as Atrium Ljungberg and Viaplay Group as well as experience from auditing and consulting roles at EY and Deloitte. Daniel Tellberg has an MBA in Accounting & Auditing from Stockholm University.
