Rosel Ragnarsson retires, Helena Lindahl takes over as Treasury Director

Today Rosel Ragnarsson will retire. Helena Lindahl who is today part of the management team has successively taken over areas of responsibility within financing and investor relations.

“Rosel has had a significant role in building SBB up from the ground to become the leading property company within social infrastructure in the Nordic region. It is gratifying for SBB and me that Rosel has professionally guided the way for a successor. With her experience and competence, Helena is the right person for this role”, says Leiv Synnes, CEO of SBB.

Helena Lindahl will be responsible for SBB’s finance and treasury function as well as capital markets in her role as Treasury Director. Before SBB, Helena Lindahl worked for 10 years as a Portfolio Manager at Storebrand Asset Management Sweden (SPP). She also has experience from Handelsbanken Credit Sales and Debt Capital Markets. Helena Lindahl has a Master's degree in financial economics from Stockholm University.
