SBB announces new date for the third quarter interim report

SBB has today decided on a new publication date for the interim report for the third quarter of 2023, due to a revised timetable for the completion of the new structure for quarterly reporting.

The company's objective with the updated structure is to improve financial reporting and transparency. It is against this background that SBB has decided on a new publication date to give the company sufficient time to finalise the report according to the new structure.

The new publication date for the interim report for the third quarter of 2023 is 13 November 2023 at 08:00 CET. The previously communicated date was 9 November 2023 at 08:00 CET.

The updated financial calendar is available on the company's website.
